For a more detailed timeline see: <https://www.fdlp.gov/evolution-of-digital-fdlp-timeline>

Transitioning to a Digital FDLP

- Quantity of titles and copies will continue to shrink
- Print distribution is being reduced to a limited selection of titles
- A tangible print copy will be distributed and retained in each of the four NCSAs
- Public Access remains a core commitment

Digital FDLP Implementation

- Digital version is the primary copy
- Libraries must opt-in to receive a title in print
 - Quantities are limited
 - Collaborative collection development is prioritized
 - Increased emphasis on shared collection management
- Regionals are not required to select everything in print
- There are no immediate changes to Legal Requirements and Program Regulations for legacy collections
- Special Selection Offers (SSOs) will continue

Notable Changes

- The following will no longer be distributed to FDLs:
 - Federal Register
 - Congressional Hearings

When does all this go into effect?

- This is an evolving transition, expect on-going communication
- Material ordered under FY23 will continue to go out to selectors
- New order counts will go into effect as printing contracts come up for renewal
- Regionals should wait to deselect any items in DSIMS until authorized to do so by LSCM.
- Selectives who want to deselect may update DSIMS at any time.

A survey is out to gauge interest

- We've sent out an information-gathering survey to regionals, preservation stewards, and libraries housing regional copies of these continuing titles
- Survey is to be completed by October 3, after which we will have a better sense of the demand for the print copies.

Next Steps

- Details about implementation are forthcoming
- LSCM will review the survey data to assess demand
- GPO will strategize how to identify selectors of the Print Distribution Titles moving forward
- Additional feedback will be gathered from all depositories
