from Charlie Amiot to everyone: 3:01 PM
Love your background, Susanne.

from Jenny Groome to everyone: 3:01 PM
+1 Charlie - yes Susanne

from Charlie Amiot to everyone: 3:02 PM
Yes

from Jodi Jacques to everyone: 3:02 PM Yes I can see it

from Scott Matheson to everyone: 3:02 PM
I can see the results

from Charlie Amiot to everyone: 3:02 PM Polls can also be popped out.

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:02 PM
I see the results but the questions column is too small to see from Kathy Stroud to everyone: 3:02 PM don't have anyone dedicated 100%, so duties not changing but % time on Gov Info will change

from Charlie Amiot to everyone: 3:03 PM
The columns can be adjusted.

from Charlie Amiot to everyone: 3:03 PM
Grab where you think the line is, it's there.

from Jenny Groome to everyone: 3:03 PM
James - if you pop out the poll, you can expand the box, then expand the columns

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:03 PM thanks @charlie. had to pop out the poll to see from Daniel Cornwall to everyone: 3:04 PM Reduced staff time, difficulty of highlighting digital resources

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:04 PM
user error :-)

from Andie Craley to everyone: 3:04 PM
Adjusting what types of materials to put into physical displays....using more QR codes to electronic materials in displays

from Charlie Amiot to everyone: 3:04 PM

A drop in support higher up. Nothing to see, nothing exists. Despite virtual existence.

from Lynde Roberts to everyone: 3:04 PM

I'm trying to fine tune my selection profile so I don't have to sift through so many MARC records from CRDP

from Elisabeth Garner to everyone: 3:04 PM

Not necessarily "problems" but a reassignment of most of my duties.

from DLC - Sarah Erikson to everyone: 3:04 PM

We can't turn on a dime, or even six months

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:04 PM

My acquisition staff is working more on unreported docs

from Jenny Groome to everyone: 3:04 PM

Anyone doing digital exhibits?

from Scott Briggs to everyone: 3:04 PM

It is allowing us to do more work with our Preservation Stewardship work, and cataloging older tangible docs that were never cataloged.

from Charlie Amiot to everyone: 3:04 PM

I'd REALLY like to see official FDLP QR codes. You can work in the logo.

from Rebecca Hyde to everyone: 3:04 PM

I selected staff duties have not changed, but that's largely because everyone who works in government information has lots of duties outside of govinfo

from Kaitlyn Moody to everyone: 3:04 PM

Adjusting and adapting workflow

from Jenny Groome to everyone: 3:04 PM

+1 james

from Jacqueline Toce to everyone: 3:04 PM

Confused about creating a meaningful guide for gov docs. Recently took over for a librarian who left.

from Elisabeth Garner to everyone: 3:05 PM

My teaching of HON 110 course will be considered an "overload," I won't be paid by our library budget, but by the Univeristy's Honor's College

from Jenny Groome to everyone: 3:05 PM

Love that Susanne!

from Kaitlyn Moody to everyone: 3:05 PM

Yes, same Susanne!

from DLC - Rob Mead to everyone: 3:05 PM
Hard to let go of the print CFR even though it's not used much.

from Shari Laster to everyone: 3:05 PM
Our team is working on a process to record print retention commitments in the library services platform.

from Kris Aberly to everyone: 3:05 PM
Good suggestion Susanne

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:05 PM and I'm going to have her do more with FDLP eXchange to look at N&Os to fill gaps in our historic collection

from Duhon, Lucy C to everyone: 3:05 PM +1 Lynde, same here

from Tom Rohrig to everyone: 3:05 PM Upgrading my Libguides! Will add mini videos on using govt docs.

from Jenny Groome to everyone: 3:05 PM
As a reference librarian (not coordinator) it's hard to know about new titles. The physical ones would pop out to me from DLC - Valerie Glenn to everyone: 3:05 PM We're still working on how to figure out new workflows, given that we're receiving very few print titles that aren't distributed consistently.

from Joshua Olsen to everyone: 3:06 PM
We've gone from gov docs being a full time job to a part of a job for a full time person with other responsibilities.

from Kris Aberly to everyone: 3:06 PM
So far the only issue has been workflows for gov docs

from Andie Craley to everyone: 3:06 PM
+1 Charlie - official FDLP QR codes, love it

from Jenny Groome to everyone: 3:06 PM
Thanks Charlie - I was thinking about FDLP QR codes too from Eileen Snyder to everyone: 3:06 PM Adjusting to the sudden pivot, understanding what the changes are, reassigning staff (defining new projects, training, etc.) Plus side is being able to tackle projects that have been waiting.

from Laura Kirkland to everyone: 3:06 PM +1 Joshua

from Daniel Cornwall to everyone: 3:06 PM

Overdrive does large posters with book covers with QR codes, that might be something to consider.

from Ella Shurr to everyone: 3:06 PM

+1 Charlie-offical FDLR QR codes!

from Jim Noel to everyone: 3:06 PM

CRDP folks: consider adding title lists to help monitor what titles are getting records each month if you don't already get them. Just contact me.

from Kris Aberly to everyone: 3:06 PM

Nothing has really changed so far. Staff have other responsibilities from Michelle Elaine Colquitt to everyone: 3:07 PM

We still have lots of work on the technical services side. We have TONS of docs to catalog as well as we are weeding a large portion of our map collection.

from Whitney Gerwitz to everyone: 3:07 PM

We are moving our physical collection to a different branch location because "it won't be growing anymore" and it will be moved to a "quiet area" that is smaller. Our administration has plans in our strategic plan to explore warehouse storage for the gov doc collection. Trying to build up our online doc collection right now.

from DLC - Aimee Quinn to everyone: 3:07 PM

Digital displays with QR Codes and cover pages, LibGuides

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:07 PM

I've dabbled in QR codes for specific titles so that users browsing our collections know that titles didn't end but went online. Results are mixed on usage

I have some Ben's Guide temp tattoos thanks to a friend

from Michelle Elaine Colquitt to everyone: 3:21 PM

I will be weeding microfilm and microfiche, too!

from Jennifer Morgan to everyone: 3:21 PM

@aimee or anyone else, would like to share mine as well - email me at jlbryan @ iu .edu :-) This is what we need a repository for -- syllabi!

from Elisabeth Garner to everyone: 3:21 PM

I just realized our 70th anniversary is in 2025...!

from Leah Grote to everyone: 3:21 PM

We weeded microfilm last year. Wear gloves!

from Stephanie Wilson to everyone: 3:22 PM

Hi Susanne!

from Laura to everyone: 3:22 PM

Shifting the collection to compact shelving

from Michelle Elaine Colquitt to everyone: 3:22 PM

Thanks for that pro-tip, @Leah.

from Jenny Groome to all panelists: 3:22 PM

I'm looking forward to Coltsville (CT) becoming a National Park and updating our guide on the legislative history

from Charlie Amiot to everyone: 3:22 PM

How do you even begin to weed microfilm? As long as they don't smell like vinegar, I'm leaving them there!

from Kathy Stroud to everyone: 3:22 PM

Those KN95 masks come in handy when weeding.

from DLC - Rob Mead to everyone: 3:22 PM

+1 Charlie

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:22 PM

What is GPO currently doing to expand the coverage of the National Collection? Has GPO considered offering the Congressional govinfo publishing workflow and infrastructure for executive agencies? IMHO, having agencies use that same infrastructure would greatly expand coverage of the national collection.

from Duhon, Lucy C to everyone: 3:22 PM

is DSIMS ever going to be easier to use?

from Keven McGinn to everyone: 3:22 PM

I love Vinegar!

from Chapman, Albert T to everyone: 3:22 PM

Have GPO publicize which Congressional Serial Set volumes have been digitized with LC Law Library and are now available.

from Shari Laster to everyone: 3:23 PM

I am curious for an update on actions following from the recommendations from the PURL working group?

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:23 PM

thank you!

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:23 PM

that's why I put them here

from Charlie Amiot to everyone: 3:23 PM

+1 Albert

from Jenny Groome to all panelists: 3:23 PM

+1 Shari - PURLs

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:23 PM

another question: What movement has there been on the recommendations of the DLC Working Group on Exploring the Durability of PURLs and Their Alternatives?

from Joshua Olsen to everyone: 3:23 PM

As a newer coordinator, I really appreciate these meetings and the value I consistently get out them. They really help keep me informed about all these rapid changes.

from Marie Concannon to everyone: 3:23 PM

Would like for DLC to consider addressing the huge microfiche collections at regionals. If we could scale them down somehow.

from Kerry Gibson to everyone: 3:24 PM

What are FDLP libraries' requirements to be digital repositories? Will there still be Public Access Assessments?

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:24 PM

lastly, I'd like to make a plug for LOCKSS-USDOCS project (<https://lockss-usdocs.stanford.edu>). With the ending of print, LOCKSS-USDOCS would be a relatively low hanging fruit for libraries to get into the digital collection development and preservation space.

from Shari Laster to everyone: 3:24 PM

Great thanks Jen!

from Jenny Groome to all panelists: 3:24 PM

+1 james!

I began a "Gov Info to Go!" blog this year on my Government Information LibGuide.
<https://semo.libguides.com/govinfo>

from Elisabeth Garner to everyone: 3:24 PM

@Joshua, that's great to hear...I worked as the staff specialist for 9 years before becoming the Coordinator

from Marie Concannon to everyone: 3:24 PM

Would like for GPO to digitize the fiche

from Keven McGinn to everyone: 3:25 PM

What would be a reason for disposing of entire tangible collection if my library is making the transition to an all-Digital FDL?

from Charlie Amiot to everyone: 3:25 PM

If anyone wants to pay me to digitize fiche all day long, I am available.

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:25 PM

@Marie I know Internet Archive has received several libraries' FDLP fiche and has started to digitize them

from Marie Concannon to everyone: 3:25 PM

Cool, James!

from Jenny Groome to all panelists: 3:25 PM

With going digital 1st - how will we find the weird & wonderful docs?
<https://godort.libguides.com/c.php?g=1095813&p=7991955>

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:25 PM

IA is not currently a digital preservation partner but it'd be great for GPO to work with IA to become one

from Jenny Groome to all panelists: 3:26 PM

+1 James - yes!

from Sinai Wood to everyone: 3:26 PM did he mean, for not disposing?

from Jodi Jacques to everyone: 3:26 PM

@Keven if you need space, maybe

from Jennifer Morgan to everyone: 3:26 PM

Would like to see Serial Set (and other historical docs) digitized in black and white, easier to read and faster to download, smaller files. Digitize for access, please.

from Jenny Groome to all panelists: 3:26 PM
Any chance of a hybrid conference?

from Holly Chambers to everyone: 3:27 PM

from Keven McGinn to everyone: 3:27 PM
Thank you! This is VERY important as my Director wants to discard everything! I will not allow for discard of potentially valuable publications. We have been a depository since the 1950's.

from Jenny Groome to all panelists: 3:27 PM
+1 Keven1

from Scott Briggs to everyone: 3:27 PM
Hybrid would be nice, as some of us would not be able to travel for a F2F conference.

from Jenny Groome to everyone: 3:28 PM
+1 Sinai - hybrid so those who can't travel and inperson for those who can.

from Sinai Wood to everyone: 3:28 PM
Yes, don't leave the program but weed. It's a long process.

from James Jacobs to everyone: 3:28 PM
@kevin IMHO collections are connected to services. it becomes increasingly difficult to provide solid FDLP services without any collections

from Sinai Wood to everyone: 3:28 PM Yes hybrid.
