

Table Talk: Let's Talk about the Constitution

On September 15th, 2021 the IU Kokomo Library along with IU Kokomo's Table Talk hosted an event talking about the Constitution.

All attendees were provided with pocket Constitutions. Which were requested through FDLP's Promotional Materials website.

In total we had 30 participants; excluding the presenters which would be 37.

The CONSTITUTION of the United States

We the People of the U.S.
insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common Defense, & secure our Liberty, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the U.S.

Article I
Section 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.
Section 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch in each State. No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty five Years, seven Years being the Term of Office, who, when elected, shall have been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who, when elected, shall have been, when elected, seven Years a Citizen of the State in which he shall be chosen. Representatives and Electors shall be appointed among the several States, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, which shall be counted for Representation, three fifths of all other Persons. The actual Enumeration shall be made within three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress, and within every subsequent Term of ten Years, in such Manner as they may direct. Representatives and Electors shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch in each State. There shall be no more than two Representatives from any State, and they shall hold their Offices for two Years. If Vacancies happen in the House of Representatives, they shall be filled in such Manner as the Legislature of each State may direct.
Section 3. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, and they shall hold their Offices for six Years. If Vacancies happen in the Senate, they shall be filled in such Manner as the Legislature of each State may direct. Immediately after they shall be qualified in their respective States, they shall take the following Oath or Affirmation: "I do swear, or affirm, that I will support the Constitution of the United States."

and The Declaration of Independence

The first President of the United States shall be President of the Senate. He shall have the same Powers and also all the Powers and Duties of the President of the United States.
The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments.
