

Researching Business Topics?

Library of Congress Collections

for Federal Employees

RESOURCES

110+ Business Databases

<https://eresources.loc.gov>

Library of Congress subscribes to over 1,000 databases. Most require on-site connection to the Library wifi to access.

54+ Business Research Guides

<https://guides.loc.gov>

Topical guides cover subjects from historical company research to specific industries.

CRS Reports

<https://crsreports.congress.gov>

Congressional Research Service publishes overviews and analysis on a number of topics for members of Congress, which are also freely available to the public.

Stacks

<https://stacks.loc.gov>

Browse rights restricted digital publications. Access requires on-site use of a Library computer.

SERVICES

Business Reference Services

<https://www.loc.gov/rr/business>

Quick resource with links to guides, business collections, and contact information.

Interlibrary Loan

<https://www.loc.gov/rr/loan>

Federal agencies can borrow material through their library service. Questions? Call 202-707-5441 or email LoanCirc@loc.gov.

Reading Rooms

<https://www.loc.gov/rr>

Find specific reading rooms by subject, material format, or geographic focus, and their hours and visiting information.

Reader Cards

Pre-register for a Library Reader ID Card .

CONNECT

Ask a Business Librarian

<https://ask.loc.gov/business>

Schedule Appointments

202-707-5639

Reference Questions (Ask a Librarian)

<https://ask.loc.gov/>

Social Media

<https://www.loc.gov/connect/>