

HOT OFF THE PRESS

Magazines, Newsletters and Bulletins Free from the Government

Where to find magazines and bulletins

Some places to locate magazines, both currently being published and historical magazines and bulletins no longer in publication

What does the US Government publish as magazines, bulletins and newsletters?

A large variety of information in a variety of subject fields, including the humanities, history, science, health, agriculture and politics

Where can you find magazines, bulletins and newsletters appropriate for my library users?

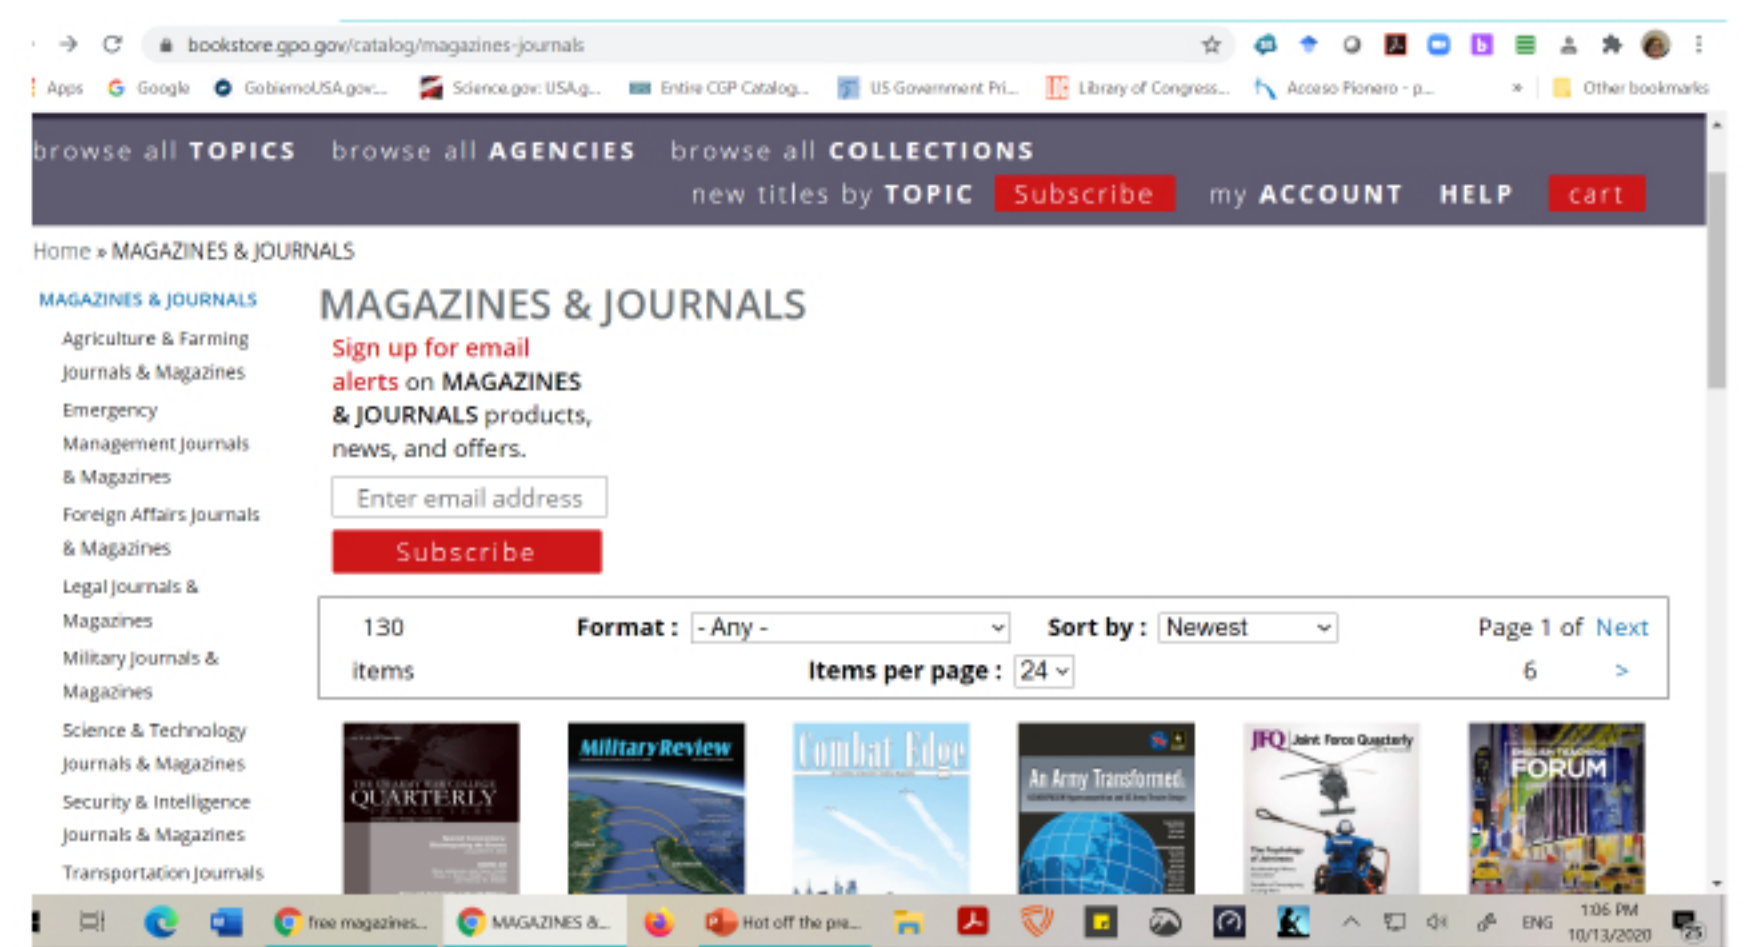

Catalog of Government Publications (CGP) with a search for magazines, bulletins or by topic or specific agency name

A search in the CGP also offers publications which index magazines from various agencies and provide information on historical publications as well as the management of electronic periodical publications

USA.gov is another place to search for magazines, bulletins, newsletters and by agency and topic.

NARA (The National Archives and Records Administration) provides periodical publications which are no longer published.

The National Library for the Blind provides magazines for individuals with visual disabilities.

Jane Canfield
Federal Government Information Coordinator
Pontifical Catholic University of Puerto Rico
jcanfield@pucpr.edu
787-841-2000, ext 1806

