

Browse Topics

www.browsetopics.gov

Browse Topics is your pathway to Federal web sites. Quickly and easily locate U.S. Government information in various subject categories. Site contributions are submitted and maintained by professional librarians.

Ever created an online subject guide? Then you can be a Browse Topics contributor. Use your expertise to create access to government information.

Help provide a pathway to official Federal resources.

Over 70 Topical Pathways such as:
ID Theft | Military History | Foreign Travel
Copyright | Historical Preservation | Disabilities

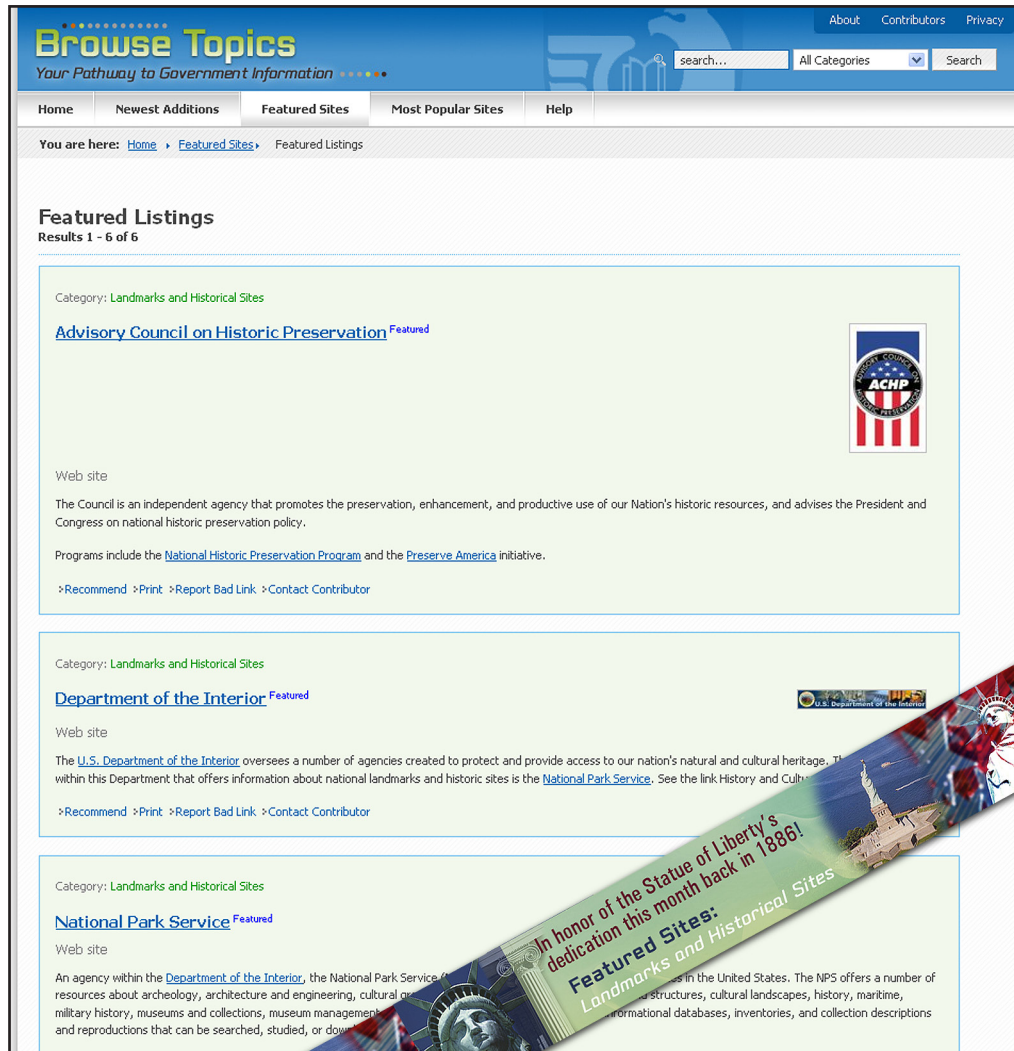

- Site Search
- Recommend Listings to Friends
- Print Listings
- Contact Contributors

Use our feedback form to suggest new categories and tell us how we can further improve the site.

New Monthly Event-Driven Featured Sites Banner

Based off of current events, celebrations, and our nation's rich history, each month we are spotlighting Federal sites of interest. Check back each month to view the latest highlighted resources. Suggest a monthly featured topic through our "Feedback Form" found under the "Help" feature.

The screenshot displays the "Browse Topics" website interface. The header includes the site name "Browse Topics" with the tagline "Your Pathway to Government Information", navigation links for "About", "Contributors", and "Privacy", and a search bar. The main navigation menu contains "Home", "Newest Additions", "Featured Sites", "Most Popular Sites", and "Help". A breadcrumb trail shows "You are here: Home > Featured Sites > Featured Listings".

The "Featured Listings" section shows "Results 1 - 6 of 6". Three featured listings are visible:

- Advisory Council on Historic Preservation (Featured): Category: Landmarks and Historical Sites. Includes a logo for ACHP and a description of its role in promoting the preservation of historic resources.
- Department of the Interior (Featured): Category: Landmarks and Historical Sites. Includes a logo for the U.S. Department of the Interior and a description of its oversight of natural and cultural heritage.
- National Park Service (Featured): Category: Landmarks and Historical Sites. Includes a description of its role in managing national parks and historic sites.

A diagonal banner across the bottom right of the screenshot reads: "In honor of the Statue of Liberty's dedication this month back in 1886! Featured Sites: Landmarks and Historical Sites".

Sign up and contribute today:

- Visit: www.browsetopics.gov
- Click "Contributors" from top right navigation
- Click "Apply to be a Contributor" from left hand navigation

A service of the Federal Depository Library Program.

Partnership between the U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO) and Oklahoma State University (OSU).