NEW HEINONLINE DATABASES

Water Rights & Resources | September 2022

With nearly 3,000 titles and more than 600,000 pages this database is dedicated to understanding the complex interplay of state and federal laws that govern all aspects of water in society, from municipal use to restoring its pristine condition. In the face of so much uncertainty, water rights and how to use our water resources becomes even more vital to understand.

LGBTQ+ Rights | June 2022

Included in the Social Justice Suite! This database contains a collection of materials relating to the gay rights movement in America, including an interactive timeline, as well as subject-coded court cases, scholarly articles, books, pamphlets, reports, and more.

Law Academy Project | January 2022

This comprehensive collection of works explores the history of the Law Academy of Philadelphia from its beginnings to the mid-twentieth century, compiled by editor Dr. Joel Fishman. Within the database, users will find biographies of the Academy's leading officers; course pamphlets; annual addresses from noted local, national, and international law experts; as well as other shorter pieces relating to the Academy.

Bremer-Kovacs Collection: Historic Documents Related to the Administrative Procedure Act of 1946 | December 2021

This comprehensive database was designed to make the history of the Administrative Procedure Act of 1946 (APA) more accessible and understandable. An interactive timeline charting the Act's passage is included within the database. Compiled by Kathryn E. Kovacs, Emily S. Bremer, and Charlotte D. Schneider.

Air and Space Law | November 2021

This database includes a collection of books, documents, reports, and more illustrating the multitude of ways humans interact with and explore the earthly skies and distant reaches of outer space. Through the collection, users will see how governments and regulators reacted to new technologies, the accidents and disasters that prompted reform, and the new frontiers that await as technology advances at an improbable speed.

Open Society Justice Initiative | August 2021

Included in the complimentary Social Justice Suite! This database brings the Justice Initiative's scholarship to HeinOnline, providing access to works published by the Justice Initiative in HeinOnline's fully searchable, image-based format. This database, consisting entirely of never-before available titles to HeinOnline, will be updated yearly as new publications are released by the Justice Initiative.

Indigenous Peoples of the Americas | August 2022

In the past 12 months, we've added nearly 800,000 pages from more than 700 new titles to the Indigenous Peoples of America: History, Culture & Law database, including two important publications from the Native Nations Law & Policy Center.

National Survey of State Laws, 9th Edition | July 2022

While the print version of the 9th edition is in the midst of being published, we have updated every topic in the database with the laws as they currently stand so users can stay up to date with what's trending, such as Abortion, Gun Control, and Voter Laws.

Multinational Sources Compared | February 2022

The second edition of Multinational Sources Compared: A Subject and Jurisdiction Index is available with nearly 60 new subjects! This edition is available as a fully searchable online database in addition to the print resource.

Vaccination Subcollection | January 2022

A new Vaccination subcollection has been added to our COVID-19: Pandemics Past and Present database. This database includes more than 250 titles dedicated solely to the history of inoculations for COVID-19 as well as several other diseases.

Law Journal Library | October 2021

The Law Journal Library officially surpassed 3,000 journals, all dating back to the first issue ever published! In addition, we have expanded existing agreements and established new agreements with significant publishers, such as the following:

35 new journals added!

7 new journals added!

Significantly increased coverage for 13 journals!

INTERFACE ENHANCEMENTS

MyHein | May 2022

When MyHein was initially launched in 2008, it was merely a bookmarking tool. Since then, this HeinOnline staple has become a multidimensional research tool for power researchers. We have consistently added new features throughout the years! But, for the first time, MyHein has received a major face-lift. No need to worry, all functionality has remained the same, but now MyHein is easier to use and easier on the eyes.

NEW FEATURES & RESOURCES

IFLP Alerts | June 2022

HeinOnline's Index to Foreign Legal Periodicals (IFLP) database is an interactive online version of AALL's Index to Foreign Legal Periodicals, the preeminent multilingual index to articles and book reviews appearing in more than 800 legal journals worldwide. To make this product even more beneficial to our users, we created our newest feature: IFLP Alerts! IFLP Alerts allow individuals to tailor custom alerts delivered via email as a personalized supplement to the monthly IFLP issue. Users may create alerts based on more than 100 topics, 300 country subjects, 800 journals, and 30 languages.

PathFinder | August 2021

As we grow our multidisciplinary content, we continue to enhance methods for its discovery. Using a combination of human curation along with natural language processing and machine learning, we've extracted thousands of research concepts from this multidisciplinary content. We've been working on a way to easily utilize our thousands of research concepts in browsing and searching. With that, we are pleased to introduce PathFinder, a suite of browse and search tools for subject-specific research.
