

Expanding the Forecast Framework: Engage & Discuss

December 3-5 and December 10-12, 2013

AGENDA

Times listed are Eastern Standard Time.

Tuesday, December 3

1:00 – 1:30 WELCOME

Mary Alice Baish, Superintendent of Documents, GPO

Don't miss the welcoming session where the goals and expected outcomes of the virtual sessions will be shared. A look at the impact of the Government shutdown on GPO and the budget outlook for FY 2014 will be discussed as well.

1:30 – 2:00 LIBRARY SERVICES AND CONTENT MANAGEMENT (LSCM) UPDATE

Jane Sánchez, Director, Library Services & Content Management, GPO

Jane will discuss actions taken already as a result of Forecast Study responses as well as the effect of the Government shutdown on LSCM.

2:15 – 2:45 DEPOSITORY LIBRARY SERVICES DURING THE GOVERNMENT SHUTDOWN

Arlene Weible, Oregon Federal Regional Depository Coordinator, Oregon State Library and Depository Library Council Chair

Arlene will lead a discussion about the effect of the Government shutdown on depository library services and the impact on users.

3:00 – 3:45 FDLP FORECAST STUDY OVERVIEW

Mary Alice Baish, Superintendent of Documents, GPO

Paul Giannini, Senior Program Planner, Office of Programs, Strategy, and Technology, GPO

Jane Sánchez, Director, Library Services & Content Management, GPO

Arlene Weible, Oregon Federal Regional Depository Coordinator, Oregon State Library and Depository Library Council Chair

You won't want to miss this summary of the FDLP Forecast Study project. The presentation will include where we are now in the process and timeline; the methodology used to gather and analyze the valuable data provided by you; State Focused Action Plans (SFAPs); and the Depository Library Council's role. There will be time for Q&A.

Wednesday, December 4

1:00 – 2:00 FORECAST STUDY SUMMARY AND ANALYSIS

Join us for reports of the FDLP Forecast Study data findings, conclusions, near term action items, recommendations, and goals from the LSCM Working Paper Teams:

Collection Management

Melissa Fairfield, Outreach Librarian, Library Services and Content Management, GPO

Library Services and Content Management Projects

Melissa Fairfield, Outreach Librarian, Library Services and Content Management, GPO

Affiliations & Community Marketing

Mark Ames, Archives Specialist, Library Services and Content Management, GPO

Education

Kristina Bobe, Senior Planning and Development Specialist, GPO

Preservation Issues

David Walls, Preservation Librarian, Library Services and Content Management, GPO

Future Roles & Opportunities

Cynthia Etkin, Sr. Program Planning Specialist, Office of the Superintendent of Documents, GPO

2:15 – 3:00 FOCUSED DISCUSSION: DETERMINING THE FUTURE OF MICROFICHE DISTRIBUTION

Hallie Pritchett, Facilitator

Head, Map and Government Information Library, University of Georgia Libraries

Help identify the parameters under which GPO could discontinue the distribution of microfiche and determine acceptable alternatives to microfiche distribution.

Thursday, December 5

1:00 – 1:45 FOCUSED DISCUSSION: DEPOSITORY LIBRARY COLLABORATION: STRUCTURE FOR THE DIGITAL AGE, PART 1: REGIONAL AND SELECTIVE DEPOSITORY LIBRARIES

Larry Romans, Facilitator

Head, Government Information and Media Services, Vanderbilt University Central Library

Provide your insights to identify options for flexibility within the current regional / selective structure. The options identified may or may not include changes to Title 44.

2:00 – 2:45 FOCUSED DISCUSSION: DEPOSITORY LIBRARY COLLABORATION: STRUCTURE FOR THE DIGITAL AGE, PART 2: NEW OPPORTUNITIES FOR DEPOSITORY LIBRARIES

Blane Dessy, Facilitator

Executive Director, Federal Library and Information Network, Library of Congress

Continuing the discussion from part 1, share your ideas for Proofs of Concept for collaborative pilot projects involving depository libraries and help us identify areas where GPO can take on a coordinating or leadership role.

Tuesday, December 10

1:00 - 1:45 FOCUSED DISCUSSION: BUILDING AN AUTHORITATIVE NATIONAL BIBLIOGRAPHY OF U.S. GOVERNMENT PUBLICATIONS

Chris Brown, Facilitator

Reference Technology Integration Librarian and Government Documents Coordinator,
University of Denver Penrose Library

Participate in the discussion and provide your thoughts, ideas, and strategies that will assist GPO in the development of a comprehensive index of Government publications and information dissemination products.

2:00 – 2:45 FOCUSED DISCUSSION: IN THE PUBLIC EYE: INCREASING FEDERAL DEPOSITORY LIBRARY RELEVANCE

Kate Irwin-Smiler, Facilitator

Reference Librarian, Wake Forest University School of Law Professional Center Library

Join the discussion and offer suggested actions for GPO and Federal depository libraries to undertake that will increase the relevance of Federal depository libraries and dispersed Government documents collections.

Wednesday, December 11

1:00 - 1:45 FOCUSED DISCUSSION: RESOLVING ANTICIPATED BARRIERS TO DIGITAL ACCESS

Marie Concannon, Facilitator

Government Documents Regional Coordinator and Data Services Librarian, University of Missouri, Columbia Elmer Ellis Library

Offer your thoughts and ideas about options to resolve or minimize the anticipated barriers to accessing digital Federal Government information.

2:00 – 2:45 FOCUSED DISCUSSION: MARKETING

Stephanie Braunstein, Facilitator

Head of Government Documents/Microforms, Louisiana State University Middleton Library

Join the discussion and offer your ideas about how GPO and depository libraries can develop and refine their marketing efforts. Your suggestions will help GPO augment the FDLP Promotion Plan.

Thursday, December 12

2:00 – 2:45 OVERVIEW OF NEXT GEN FDSYS

Speakers from the Office of Program, Strategy, and Technology, GPO

Overview of initiative to develop the next generation FDSys public website that will utilize a mobile first design strategy, incorporate an open source search engine, provide users with access to related content, and improve overall site usability.

3:00 – 3:45

DIGITIZATION FOR PRESERVATION: CREATING SUSTAINABLE DIGITAL CONTENT

Mark Phillips, Assistant Dean for Digital Libraries, University of North Texas Libraries

Carl Fleischauer, Project Manager, Office of Strategic Initiatives, Library of Congress

Discussion of digitization as a viable means of preservation and an overview of Federal Agencies Digitization Guidelines Initiative (FADGI) guidelines and specifications for digitization.

3:45 – 4:00

CLOSING REMARKS

Arlene Weible, Oregon Federal Regional Depository Coordinator, Oregon State Library and Depository Library Council Chair

Mary Alice Baish, Superintendent of Documents, GPO