PDT Implementation

Terminology

PDT = Print Distribution Titles

The only paper format titles that will be distributed to depository libraries.

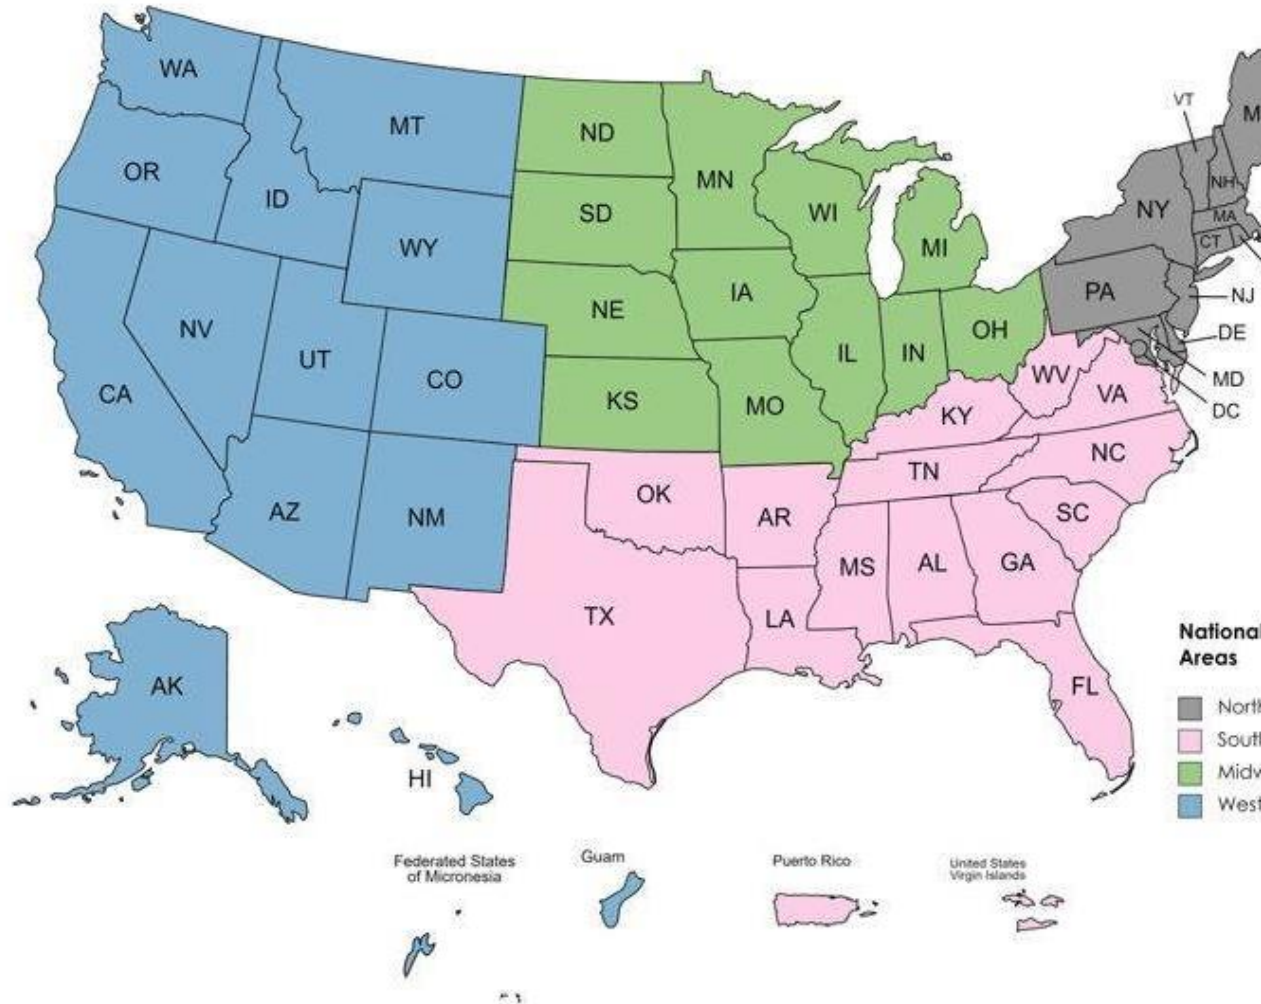

PDTs are distributed in three quantities:

- 20 copies = Titles are distributed to 20 libraries across the country.
- 50 copies = Titles are distributed to 50 libraries across the country.
- Unlimited quantity = Titles are distributed to any FDL that selects these item numbers on their item selection profiles. There are 7 titles in this category.

Terminology

- NCSA = National Collection Service Areas
 - JCP specified that no fewer than 4 copies of tangible publications be geographically dispersed in the FDLP.
 - NCSAs are the 4 geographic areas of the country, with one copy being deposited in each NCSA: West, Midwest, South, Northeast.

Timeline of New PDT Framework

Sept 2023

- Meetings held to introduce the limited Print Distribution Titles (PDT) list and framework to the FDLP

Nov 2023

- 4 meetings held with the NCSAs (Midwest, Northeast, South, and West) to discuss criteria needed to allocate print copies within the NCSAs
- Questionnaire sent out to all libraries in the 4 NCSAs to determine criteria which will be used to allocate print copies of PDT
- Criteria was weighted and an allocation formula developed

Dec 2023

- PDT Questionnaire sent out to all FDLs with a due date of 12/22/23
- 731 responses recorded

Timeline of New PDT Framework

Jan 2024

- LSCM determined allocations and sent to DLC for feedback and review
- On January 17, LSCM notified libraries receiving allocations and asked them to confirm and acknowledge the PDT retention requirements and commitment to holding the tangible materials going forward.

Feb 2024

- The final PDT allocations list was shared with the FDLP community via News Alert.
- February was a transition month for distribution, as LSCM began limited distribution of the new PDTs.
- Item selection profiles were updated to reflect PDT allocations on February 22.

Timeline of New PDT Framework

March 2024

- Bulk updates pivoting List of Classes entries to digital format were completed on March 24.
- Work began on the public PDT distribution framework report.

April 2024

- Further List of Classes updates are currently underway.
- NCSA Steering Committees met on April 17 for orientation. Committees for each NCSA will begin work in late April and May.
- Continued work on the public PDT distribution framework report

Impacts of the PDT Implementation

GPO and LSCM

- Updated shipping list template to reflect all entries are PDT - unless otherwise noted with a ^ symbol in the title field
 - ^ entries are old model distribution, and regular FDLP weeding/retention rules apply.
 - PDT shipments (not specifically marked in shipping lists) have new retention requirements:
 - Retain for first 5 years and no supersession or electronic substitution during that period
 - After 5 years, commit to offer nationally in FDLP eXchange
 - Commit to catalog print receipts and make discoverable

Impacts of the PDT Implementation

Federal depository libraries

- Should only receive PDT and Special Selection Offer (SSO) content
- Will no longer receive shipping lists if your library does not get a publication on that shipping list
- Should periodically check their item selection profiles
- Will note a simplified Depository Selection Information Management System (DSIMS) interface
- May have to contact your catalog record vendor to update your record profile

NCSA Steering Committees

April 17th – Orientation held for all 4 NCSA steering committees

Committees will...

- Work across their NCSA to facilitate collaborative collection management.
- Work with GPO to develop and refine guidance for a digital FDLP.

GPO Appoints NCSA Steering Committee Members

Last Updated: March 25, 2024 Published: March 25, 2024

The U.S. Government Publishing Office (GPO) is pleased to announce the appointment of 32 Government information professionals to roles on National Collection Service Area (NCSA) Steering Committees. Many more volunteered to serve and will be considered as there are vacancies on the committees to ensure broad participation.

NCSA Steering Committees facilitate discussion and collaboration among the Federal depository libraries in the NCSA. The committees will develop planning documents for the collaborative management of depository collections and work with GPO to develop and refine guidance and procedures for the digital-first FDLP. More information is available in the committee charters.

Steering Committees have seven members, including a representative from the Depository Library Council (DLC). Additionally, there is an alternate and Federal Depository Support Services librarians who will be at meetings. The

PDT Related Preservation Steward Outreach

Overall Plans

- To obtain Preservation Steward commitments for all titles on the PDT list is the overall goal.
- Analyze PDT Questionnaire responses (survey was distributed in December 2023) to “Are you an existing Preservation Steward?” and “Do you have administration support to preserve this title?”
- Outreach to existing Preservation Stewards and libraries with administrative support to preserve the 20 and 50 count PDT titles over the next six months.
- Share updates on FDLP.gov and at the Federal Depository Library Conference in Fall 2024.
- Turn our focus to the Unlimited PDT titles in 2025.

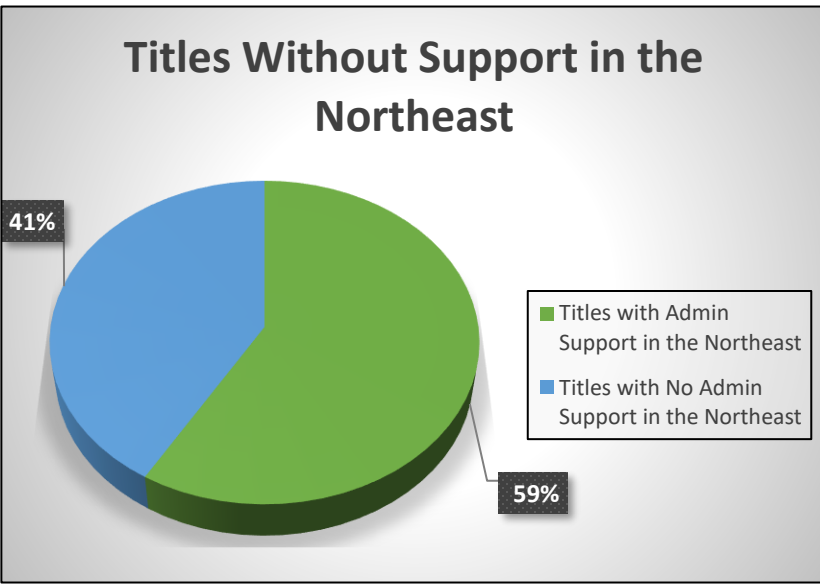

Analysis

Eight of the 20 and 50 count titles have administrative support in all four NCSAs.
