Who bears responsibility for succession planning in the library?

The short answer = everyone.

How does mentoring enhance succession planning in the library?

- Mentoring is beneficial for the individuals and the organization
- Employees ready to take on leadership roles

What are the challenges involved with succession planning in the library?

- Time
- Getting mentors invested
- Getting buy-in from all levels

When can succession planning be applied to other areas of the library besides management?

- Specialized jobs (e.g.: catalogers)
- Providing training and growth opportunities to everyone increases “bench strength”

Recommendations – Keep mentoring in mind

- Mentoring is for everyone
- Identify key competencies

Recommendations – mentoring networks

- Peer mentors, newer mentors, and senior mentors
- Professional associations
- Social media
