

LAW LIBRARY DIGITAL AND PRINT COLLECTIONS

The Law Library of Congress is the largest law library in the world, providing access to 2.9 million volumes concerning domestic, foreign, comparative, and international law. You can search and browse the Law Library's collection of materials through the Library of Congress Catalog.

Digital

The Law Library provides access to a vast amount of born digital and digitized materials through its site, Law.gov. A particular highlight of this collection is Law Library of Congress foreign, comparative, and international law reports.

Print

The law collection includes over one million titles and 2.9 million volumes on foreign and domestic law. More than 50% of the collection is in languages other than English, supported by foreign law specialists who prepare reports for Congress.

Subscriptions

Many databases are available via the Law Reading Room:

- Bloomberg Law
- CQ.com
- Foreign Law Guide
- Gale Legal Forms Library
- HeinOnline
- Lexis+
- LLMC Digital
- Making of Modern Law
- Oxford Constitutions of the World
- ProQuest Congressional

Rare Books

The Law Library has a collection of rare materials that are available for viewing by making an appointment.

- Illuminated manuscripts
- Incunabula
- Early legal Americana
- Unique historical documents

For more information on the collections of the Law Library, call us at 202-707-5079 or Ask A Law Librarian (<https://ask.loc.gov/law>)

