Freedom of Information Act

A panel discussion where UM faculty spoke about how they have used FOIA to access valuable government information for their research.

FDLP Anniversary Kick-off & Open House:

The kick-off event for our semester long 135th anniversary celebration. Attendees were given an inside look at the most interesting items in our Federal Documents collection.

Engaging Citizens

Attendees learned how a bill becomes a law, how to look up the text of bills by name, keyword, bill number, and congressional representative using Congress.Gov.

Engaging Citizens was held at 4 libraries: the University of Mississippi Libraries, Lafayette-Oxford Public Library, Olive Branch Public Library, & Sardis Public Library.

How Urban Activists Challenged Financial Deregulation

Participants learned how government documents played a vital role in highlighting the efforts of activists in the 1970s who challenged financial deregulation.

Becoming a Citizen

Representatives from USCIS discussed steps to naturalization and answered questions about the process. UM Libraries Citizenship Resource Corner was also highlighted.
