Federal Depository Library Program Web Archive

Archive-It Partner Since: Nov, 2011

Organization Type: National Institutions

Organization URL: <http://www.fdlp.gov>

Description: Harvested by: Library Services and Content Management, U.S. Government Publishing Office. The Federal Depository Library Program, FDLP, was established by Congress in 1895 to provide free, permanent public access to Federal government information. The US Government Publishing Office administers the FDLP on behalf of the participating libraries and the American people. More information about the FDLP can be found at www.fdlp.gov. To provide permanent public access to Federal Agency Web content, the Federal Depository Library Program harvests selected U.S. Government Web sites in their entirety. Access to these sites is made available through links in our online public access catalog, the Catalog of U. S. Government Publications <http://catalog.gpo.gov>. For more questions about our web archiving program contact us at FDLPwebarchiving@gpo.gov

Guidance and Best Practices

Best practices are the consensus of a group of experts, provided as guidance for a community of collaborative partners. The preservation program provides guidance documentation to enable our partners to work efficiently and effectively together and with us.

What to do if a disaster strikes...

A disaster can damage or destroy library collections, reducing or eliminating access to the information users need. Simple steps taken when responding to a disaster can significantly improve the recovery of library materials and reduce the amount of time that access is interrupted. To provide our libraries with guidance on what to do if a disaster strikes, we offer the following information.

- What To Do If Your Library Has Unplanned Access Restrictions
- What To Do If Your Library Has a Flood or Water Disaster
- What To Do If Your Library Books Have Mold

Consultation and Collaboration

GPO's preservation program maintains core competencies and expert knowledge in the following areas and freely shares this knowledge with FDLP libraries as well as GPO Preservation Partners:

- Preservation tab on FDLP.gov

Notable Numbers
