

Registry of U.S. Government Publication Digitization Projects

The Registry contains records for projects that include digitized copies of publications originating from the U.S. Government. It serves as a locator tool for publicly accessible collections of digitized U.S. Government publications; increases awareness of U.S. Government publication digitization projects that are planned, in progress, or completed; fosters collaboration for digitization projects; and provides models for future digitization projects.

To contribute to the Registry, login and use the "My Registry" tab to view, add, and edit your listings.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Registry of U.S. Government Publication Digitization Projects. At the top, there is a search bar with the text "search the registry..." and a dropdown menu for "All Categories" with an "Advanced" option. Below the search bar is a login section with fields for "Username" and "Password", a "Login" button, and links for "Forgot password?" and "Forgot username?". The main navigation menu includes "Home", "New Listings", "Recently Updated Listings", "Search", "About the Registry", "Apply to Contribute", and "Help". The main content area features the title "Registry of U.S. Government Publication Digitization Projects" and a brief description of the registry's purpose. Below this, there is a section titled "Browse By Category" with a grid of category links and descriptions: "Arts & Humanities (10)", "Business & Economy (19)", "General Interest (17)", "Legal & Regulatory (19)", "Natural Sciences & Mathematics (28)", "Social Sciences (23)", and "Technology & Applied Sciences (9)". At the bottom of the main content area, there is a section titled "Browse Alphabetically By Title" with a navigation bar for letters A through Z. The footer of the page states "A service of the U.S. Government Printing Office".
