

Introduction to CBO: Its Role, Services, Products, and Communications – Transcript

--Begin Transcript---

Chat

Bert Chapman -> All Participants: CBO keeps up-to-date on emerging policy issues such as this Oct. 2020 report <https://purl.fdlp.gov/GPO/gpo145996> on the potential costs of a space national guard for U.S. Space Force.

Joshua Lambert -> All Participants: Are your interactive graphics created in a format that will be saveable and usable in 10 or 50 years?

Joshua Lambert -> All Participants: Thanks for providing the data. Academics love that.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: data is important. But so it static version for preservation of information

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Can interactive tools save result as pdf (like Census used to do)?

Bert Chapman -> All Participants: The Space National Guard report was produced before Oct. 2020.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: As librarians, we need to have the information preserved within time context

Rebecca Hyde -> All Participants: Thank you this was so useful!

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: I think there is a concern as we move away from paper reports,

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: we need to hve something like that

Perveen Rustomfram -> All Participants: Very interesting! Thanks so much!

Janet Holly -> All Participants: Thank you

Dan Henderson -> All Participants: Thank You

Angela Kent -> All Participants: Thank you!

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Thanks - very helpful

Jose Torres -> All Participants: Great program!

BARBARA BREN -> All Participants: Thanks!

---End Transcript---