Jenny Groome -> All Participants: That's fast! Thanks!

Jennifer Morgan -> All Participants: Our presentation LibGuide (<https://law.indiana.libguides.com/race-voting-rights>) contains video of the Fannie Lou Hamer, MLK, and LBJ speeches. Check it out!

Jessica Fomalont -> All Participants: The Civil rights act of 1866 was also controversial because it excluded women from voting.

Alicia Kubas -> All Participants: i highly recommend john lewis' march graphic novels which really crystallized for me these organizations and the movement overall

Kate Irwin-Smiler -> All Participants: Alicia+!

Betty Elder -> All Participants: Thank you Jennifer for the link!

C. Welch, PhD -> All Participants: Recent Supreme Court decisions: striking down of Section 4 of the Voting Rights Act in 2013 and the Comcast v. National Association of African-American-Owned Media decision this year highlight your point about History as Pendulum.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: ha ha this is great

Jennifer Morgan -> All Participants: :)

JJ McGee -> All Participants: I didn't see a link..was it to John Lewis graphic novels or the Civil rights act of 1866

Jose Juarez-Moncada -> All Participants: Thank you so much! That was FANTASTIC

Laura Tolliver -> All Participants: Fantastic presentation!! You are very captivating in the way you present and very engaging!

Lakisha Hughes -> All Participants: Thank you, Luis! Your passion is palpable!

Yvonne Williams -> All Participants: Great presentation. I felt your passion. thank you.

Luis Fuentes-Rohwer -> All Participants: Thank you, everyone. Please know that I meant it when I said that I hoped you'd reach out to me if you had any questions of thoughts, or just wanted to chat about anything you saw or heard.

Jessica Fomalont -> All Participants: I was lucky to take a class at Mary Washington College taught by James Farmer of the Congress of Racial Equality.

Jose Torres -> All Participants: Great presentation!

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Thank you Luis - I hope you remember the book about personal stories. I will reach out to you. For me, this is personal rather than research.

Stephen Parks -> All Participants: Living in Jackson, MS, it is such a privilege to meet some of those who were part of the movement. Many of them are volunteer tour guides at the MS Civil Rights Museum.

Luis Fuentes-Rohwer -> All Participants: Wow on Faremer as a teacher. Amazing!

Bobby Griffith -> All Participants:

Jessica Fomalont -> All Participants: Yes. He taught a civil rights course at Mary Washington for several years. It was mainly his story.

Luis Fuentes-Rohwer -> All Participants: Went to Selma a few years ago and met some incredible people. I agree. What a privilege.

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: I was sad I never got my stepdad back to Hattiesburg where he volunteered in 1965.

Stephen Parks -> All Participants: Hein is great.

Stephen Parks -> All Participants: Even for state legislative laws

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Students were always surprised to learn that early content of Cong Rec included content that was submitted but not actually spoken on the chamber floor.

Eugene Mckeiver -> All Participants: Been using it for years! Very Valuable resource for my patrons at Coast Guard Law Library

Eugene Mckeiver -> All Participants: The entire Serial Set is now available on Heinonline

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: Before online databases, this index was essential

Margaret Maes -> All Participants: Outstanding program! Thank you both.
