James Jacobs -> All Participants: I'll take the ball!

James Jacobs -> All Participants: true that Arlene

Alicia Kubas -> All Participants: i'm sad about no gavel...i was very much looking forward to gavel privileges!

Cindy Etkin -> All Participants: Depository Libraries in a Time of Stay-at-Home Orders ~38#x2015;Report of Depository Library Council~38#x2019;s Open Forum, April 22, 2020 <https://www.fdlp.gov/file-repository/about-the-fdlp/federal-depository-library-council/council-reports-to-gpo/4270-depository-libraries-in-a-time-of-stay-at-home-orders-report-of-depository-library-council-s-open-forum-april-22-2020-may-29-2020/file>

Cindy Etkin -> All Participants: Lessons Learned: Depository Libraries in a COVID-19 Pandemic Environment <https://www.fdlp.gov/file-repository/outreach/events/depository-library-council-dlc-meetings/2020-meeting-proceedings/2020-fall-federal-depository-library-conference/handouts-slides/4581-depository-libraries-in-a-covid-19-pandemic-environment/file>

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: b c

Jenny Groome -> All Participants: ooops - sorry

Arlene Weible -> All Participants: Topic-based open forums could be helpful. Some suggested topics include: promotion, programming, virtual delivery of materials, managing tangible collections

Kris Abery -> All Participants: Agree with Arlene. The open forums were very helpful

James Jacobs -> All Participants: and LOSTDOCS!!

Shari Laster -> All Participants: Thanks Alicia! I would like to ask DLC to consider reflecting further on the decision to go with the term "fugitive" documents for lost docs. While the dictionary definition for "fugitive" fits what is meant by GPO's usage for the FDLP, it also has heavy connotations with the history of slavery in the United States and the complicated history and present of law and justice. I realize this may seem like a small issue, but using phrases like "fugitive hunting" to describe library collection development really can have an impact on how the work is perceived and understood. Thank you for the opportunity to comment!

James Jacobs -> All Participants: yes that's what I meant

Jesse Silva -> All Participants: +1 Shari

James Jacobs -> All Participants: +1 Shari!!
