

Training the Trainers for school media specialists and classroom teachers

Origins of the Program

- Arkansas Depository Self-Studies in 2002
  - We all needed more outreach to people other than our regular library patrons
  - Encouraged to increase cooperation between depositories
- Both of us use it heavily
  - Sarah for school projects
  - Karen for Intensive English Language students and College of Education assignments on creating curriculum

Program Goals

- Show non-docs librarians that government publications are not all aimed at adults
- Demonstrate the value of Ben's Guide as a reference tool for all levels of library users and educators
- Offer links to frequently asked questions
  - Science Fair Projects
  - National Debate Topics
  - History Day
  - Constitution Day

Our Teaching Techniques

- Ideal equipment
  - 2 computers
  - 2 data projectors
  - 1 Internet connection
- Large quantities of Ben's Guide Brochures
  - 200-300 per conference

Questions?

Karen Russ

kmruss@ualr.edu

501-569-8444

or

Sarah Ziegenbein

sarahz@cals.lib.ar.us

501-918-3000