Microsoft Live - SkyDrive (25 GB)

Microsoft Live - Mesh

The screenshot shows the Microsoft Live Mesh homepage. The main headline is "Synchronizing life" with the subtext "Sync, share, and access the information you care about—wherever you happen to be." Below this, there's a "Sign in" button and a "New to Live Mesh?" link. The central visual is a collage of digital devices: a laptop, a desktop monitor, a mobile phone, and a tablet, all connected by colorful, flowing lines representing data synchronization. At the bottom, there are three columns of text: "What is Live Mesh? Discover how Live Mesh brings your digital world together.", "What's inside? Take a look at the features in Live Mesh.", and "Get started A quick guide to help you get your mesh rolling." The footer contains copyright information for 2009 Microsoft and various links like Privacy, Terms of Use, Developers, Rate Us, Report Abuse, Safety, Feedback, Help, and Account.

The U.S. Government Printing Office's (GPO) core mission: Keeping America informed, dates to 1813 when Congress determined the need to make information regarding the work of the three branches of Government available to all Americans. This is the inherent function of Government which GPO carries out for Federal agencies on behalf of the public. GPO is the Federal Government's primary centralized resource for gathering, cataloging, producing, providing and preserving published information in all its forms.

The screenshot shows the Blogger dashboard for a user named '3michaels'. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Blogger logo, the user's email 'ad4092@gmail.com', and links for 'Dashboard', 'My Account', 'Help', and 'Sign out'. Below the navigation bar, the dashboard is titled 'Dashboard' and includes a language selector set to 'English'. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column features a profile section for '3michaels' with a placeholder profile picture and links for 'View Profile', 'Edit Profile', and 'Edit Photo'. The right column is titled 'Manage Blogs (7 total)' and lists several blogs. Each blog entry includes the blog name, a 'Hide' link, the number of posts, the last published date, a 'View Blog' link, and a 'NEW POST' button. The blogs listed are: 'LAW LEX 7501 class', '3michaels', 'Faculty - Arthur Neef Law Library', 'Gov docs - Arthur Neef Law Library', 'Staff - Arthur Neef Law Library', 'IT - Arthur Neef Law Library', and 'Lab - Arthur Neef Law Library'. Red arrows point to various elements: the profile picture, the 'NEW POST' button for the first blog, the 'Create a Blog - Help' link, the 'NEW POST' button for the 'Gov docs' blog, and the 'NEW POST' button for the 'Staff' blog.

Blogger - Gov Docs

The screenshot shows a Blogger post titled 'Gov docs - Arthur Neef Law Library'. The post content describes the blog's focus on news regarding government documents resources and services provided by the portal located on the library system network (221 Law structured drives). It mentions that new postings on this site generate e-mail that is forwarded to 'ad4092@net.edu'. Feeds (RSS/XML) generated by this site are provided by the page located at 'http://neeflawlibrary.govdocs.blogspot.com/atom.xml'. The post is dated '3/31/2006'. Below the main text, there are several related posts or links, each with a date and a title: 'Government Information Online (GIO)' (dated 3/31/2006), 'Blog moving to CALI Classcaster' (dated 3/27/2006), 'online safety tips from OnGuardOnline.gov' (dated 3/17/2006), and 'Govtrack.us - US Congress activities via RSS' (dated 1/09/2006). On the right side of the page, there is a 'My "FOLP" Blogroll' section with links to 'FOLP Desktop' and 'USA.gov Updates: News and Features'. Red arrows point to the main post title, the 'Government Information Online (GIO)' link, the 'Blog moving to CALI Classcaster' link, the 'My "FOLP" Blogroll' section, and the 'USA.gov Updates: News and Features' link.

Blogger - Add a Gadget

Bookmarks

Calendar

Calendar interface showing a monthly view for April 2009. The interface includes a navigation bar with links like 'Gmail', 'Calendar', 'Documents', 'Photos', 'Reader', 'Web', and 'more'. A search bar is present with the text 'Search My Calendars'. The main calendar grid shows events such as 'GPO disposal', 'Time sheet due', 'MCC/DCA meeting', and 'FDP conference'. A sidebar on the left contains 'My calendars' and 'Other calendars' sections. Two red arrows point to the 'Offline Beta' and 'Sync' links in the top right corner.

Calendar - Details

Calendar Details page for a calendar named 'Smichaels'. The page includes fields for 'Calendar Name', 'Calendar Owner', 'Description', and 'Location'. It also features a 'Calendar Time Zone' section with a dropdown menu set to 'United States' and 'Now select a time zone' set to '(GMT-05:00) Eastern Time'. There is an 'Embed This Calendar' section with a preview of the calendar and a code block for embedding. Two red arrows point to the 'Embed This Calendar' section and the 'Calendar Address' field.

Calendar - Share

The screenshot shows the Google Calendar interface for a calendar named "3michaels Details". The page is divided into several sections:

- Calendar Details: Includes "Calendar Details", "Share this calendar", and "Notifications" tabs. There are "Back to Calendar", "Save", and "Cancel" buttons.
- Public Sharing: A checkbox labeled "Make this calendar public" is checked. Below it, there is a link "Learn more" and a sub-option "Share only my free/busy information (Hide details)".
- Share with specific people: A table lists people with their names and email addresses. The "Permission Settings" column shows "See all event details" for each person. There is an "Add Person" button and a "Remove" button.
- Left Sidebar: Shows "My calendars" and "Other calendars" sections. A "Quick Add" calendar for April 2009 is visible.

Red arrows point to the "Share this calendar" link, the "Make this calendar public" checkbox, the "Share only my free/busy information" option, the "Add Person" button, and the "See all event details" dropdown menu.

Custom Search

The screenshot shows the Google Custom Search Engine page. The main heading is "Custom Search Engine". Below the heading, there is a description: "Have a website or collection of sites you'd like to search over? With Custom Search Engine, you can harness the power of Google to create a search engine tailored to your needs."

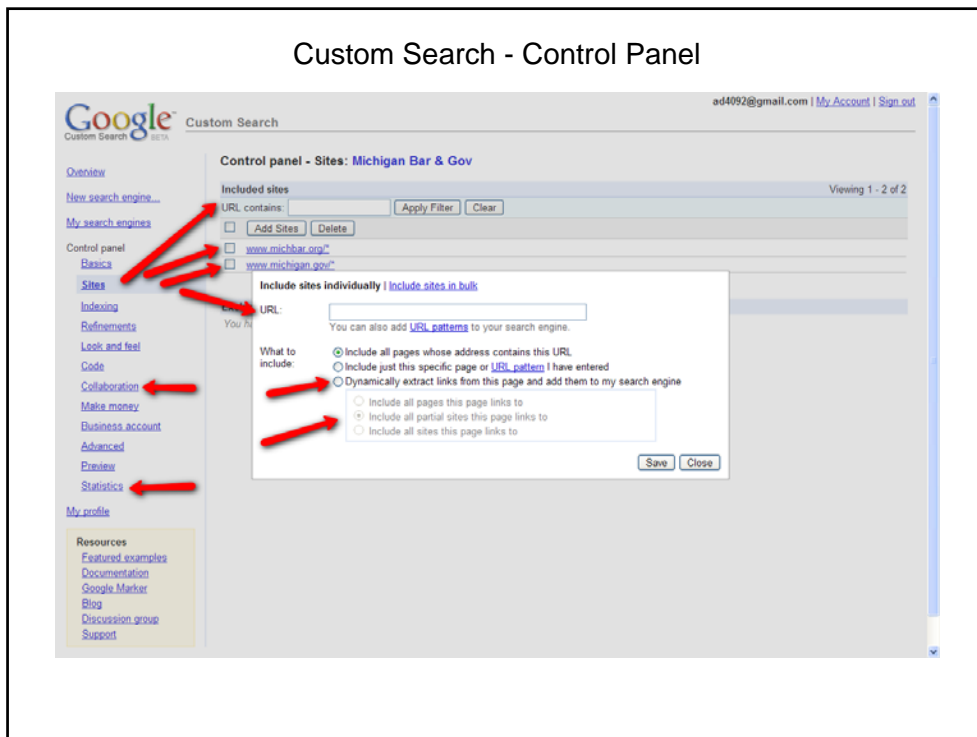

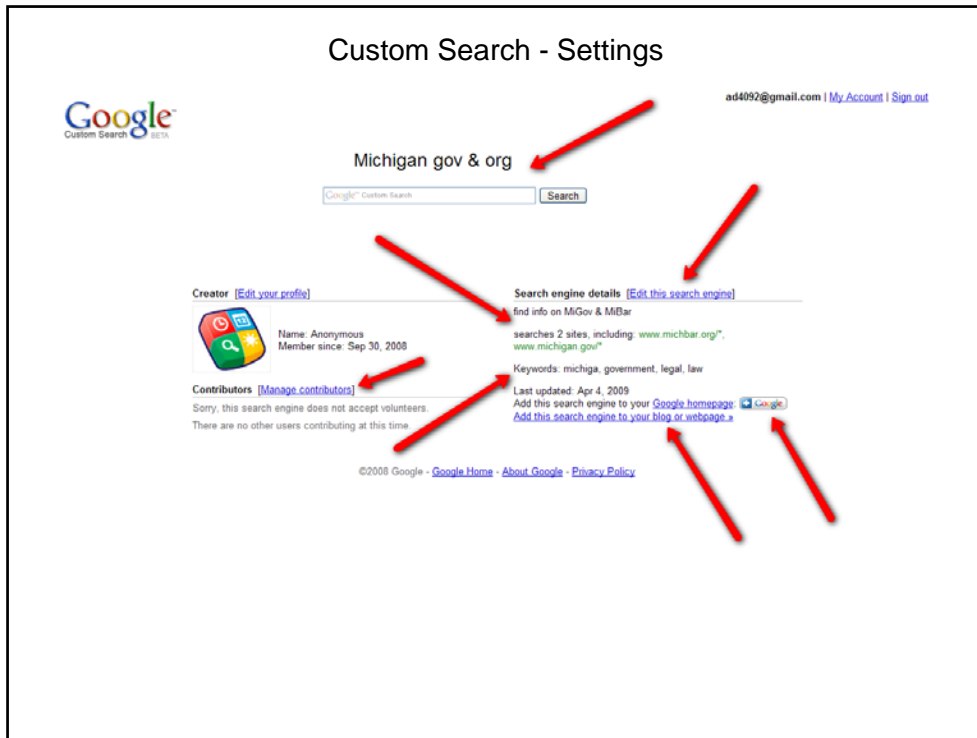

Create a search engine tailored to your needs

Docs -Upload

The screenshot shows the Google Docs upload interface. At the top, there are navigation links for Gmail, Calendar, Documents, Photos, Reader, Web, and more. The main heading is 'Upload a File'. Below this, there are two main sections: 'Browse your computer to select a file to upload:' and 'Types of files that you can upload:'. The 'Browse your computer...' section includes a 'Choose File' button, a text input for 'Or enter the URL of a file on the web:', a text input for 'What do you want to call it? (if different than the file name)', and an 'Upload File' button. The 'Types of files that you can upload:' section lists four categories: Documents (up to 500KB), Presentations (up to 10MB from your computer, 2MB from the web, 500KB via email), Spreadsheets (up to 1MB), and PDF Files (up to 10MB from your computer, 2MB from the web). Red arrows point from the 'Upload a File' heading to the 'Browse your computer...' section, and from the 'Types of files that you can upload:' heading to the list of file types. Below these sections is the 'Email-In Your Documents and Files' section, which provides an email address for uploading documents: Michael+Samson-18357292638905993435-Bz7xhvjn@prod.writeily.com. It also includes instructions on how to use this email address to upload documents.

Docs

Docs - Share

The screenshot shows the Google Docs interface with the 'Share this file' dialog box open. The dialog box has several sections: 'Invite people' with radio buttons for 'as collaborators' and 'as viewers', a text input field for email addresses, and a 'Choose from contacts' link. Below this is an 'Invite collaborators' button. The 'Advanced permissions' section has checkboxes for 'Collaborators may invite others' and 'Invitations may be used by anyone'. On the right side of the dialog, it says 'This document is currently shared.' and lists 'Collaborators (0)' and 'Viewers (3)'. The list of viewers includes Mmacqilvay, Valvau, and Wislawlib. Red arrows point to the 'Share' button in the top toolbar, the 'Invite people' section, the 'Invite collaborators' button, and the list of collaborators.

Docs - PPT conversion

The screenshot shows the Google Docs interface for a presentation titled "Cloud Computing 4 Gov docs librarians". The "File" menu is open, and the "Download presentation as" option is selected, with a sub-menu showing "PDF", "PPT", and "TXT". The "PPT" option is highlighted with a red arrow. Another red arrow points to the "Share this file" dialog box, which is open over the presentation content. The dialog box has tabs for "Share this file", "Collaborators", and "Viewers". The "Share this file" tab is active, showing options to share as a collaborator or reviewer, and a "Share" button. The presentation content in the background shows a slide with the title "Cloud Computing 4 Government Documents Librarians" and a logo.

Docs - Publish

The screenshot shows the "Publish this presentation" dialog box in Google Docs. The dialog box has a "Publish this presentation" title and a "Back to editor" link. It contains the following text: "This document is published on the web. Your document is publicly viewable at: http://docs.google.com/Presentation?id=fcqz5s8_68dxts3wcp&hl=en Published on 4/9/09 12:05 PM". Below this, there is a "Mini Presentation Module:" section with the text "You can post your published presentation online for others to browse (see demo on right)". There is a "Select presentation size:" dropdown menu set to "Small 410px". A red box highlights the text "Copy and paste the code below to your clipboard and paste it into the HTML of any website or blog". Below this, there is a code block containing the following HTML code:

<iframe src='http://docs.google.com/EmbedIdeaBox?docid=fcqz5s8_68dxts3wcp' frameborder='0' width='410' height='342'></iframe>

 To the right of the dialog box, there is a preview of the published presentation, which shows a slide with the title "Cloud Computing 4 Government Documents Librarians" and a logo. The preview also shows a "Google Docs" logo and a "Menu" button at the bottom.

Docs - Word Conversion and Publishing

The screenshot shows the Google Docs interface. On the left is a sidebar with navigation options like 'All items', 'Owned by me', 'Starred', etc. The main area displays a list of documents under the folder '2009 FDL presentation'. The document 'gpo-top10' is selected. A 'More actions' menu is open over it, listing options such as 'Star', 'Change Owner', 'Manage Sharing', 'View the published version...', 'Preview', 'Revisions', 'Save as HTML (zipped)...', 'Save as OpenDocument...', 'Save as PDF...', 'Save as RTF...', 'Save as Text...', and 'Save as Word...'. The 'Publish' option at the bottom of the menu is highlighted with a red box. A red callout box with the text 'to Internet & Blog' points to this 'Publish' option. Other red arrows point to the document name 'gpo-top10' and the 'More actions' menu itself.

Docs - Word Publish (Internet & Blog)

The screenshot shows the 'Publish this document' dialog box in Google Docs. At the top, there are buttons for 'Back to editing', 'Publish this document', 'Share', 'Save', and 'Save & Close'. The main content area is divided into two sections. The first section, 'This document is published on the web.', includes a URL, the publication date, and buttons for 'Re-publish document' and 'Stop publishing'. There is also a checkbox for 'Automatically re-publish when changes are made' and a link to 'Track visitor stats for your published documents'. The second section, 'This document has not been published to your blog.', features a 'Post to blog' button and a link to 'change your blog site settings'.

Docs - Offline

The screenshot shows the Google Docs web interface. A dialog box titled "Install offline access for Google Docs" is centered on the screen. The dialog contains the following text: "Google Docs Offline will give you access to your documents when there is no internet connection. This feature will download your docs onto this computer. Please make sure you are not using a public or shared computer." Below the text is a "Learn more" link and two buttons: "Enable offline access" and "Cancel". The background shows a list of documents with columns for Name, Folders / Sharing, and Date. A sidebar on the left shows navigation options like "All items", "Owned by me", "Starred", "Hidden", "Trash", "Saved searches", "Items not in folders", "Items by type", and "Shared with...".

Mail

The screenshot shows the Orkut website interface. The top navigation bar includes "orkut", "Home", "Profile", "Scrapbook", "Friends", "Communities", and a search bar. The user is logged in as "ad4092@gmail.com". The main content area features a sidebar on the left with links: "About orkut", "Demographics", "User testimonials", "Tell us your story", "Keep orkut beautiful", and "Safety and security". The main content area has a heading "orkut" with a red arrow pointing to it, followed by a paragraph: "orkut is an online community designed to make your social life more active and stimulating. orkut's social network can help you maintain existing relationships with pictures and messages, and establish new ones by reaching out to people you've never met before." Below this is another paragraph: "orkut makes it easy to find people who share your hobbies and interests, look for romantic connections or establish new business contacts. You can also create and join a wide variety of online communities to discuss current events, reconnect with old school mates or even exchange your favorite recipes." A third paragraph reads: "Who you interact with is entirely up to you. Before getting to know an orkut member, you can read their profile and even see how they're connected to you through the friends network." A fourth paragraph says: "To join orkut, simply sign in with your Google Account and you can begin to create your own profile right away. If you do not have a Google Account yet, we will help you create one in minutes." The final paragraph states: "It is our mission to help you create a closer, more intimate network of friends. We hope to put you on the path to social bliss soon. Enjoy (=

At the bottom, there is a footer: "orkut About orkut Blog Developers Safety Center Privacy Terms Help" and the Google logo.

Orkut - Home
