Agenda

- What is RDA?
- Prominent features of RDA records
- GPO's implementation
- GPO-specific policies and practices for RDA
- Resources for further study

What is RDA?

Resource Description & Access

- The new, international cataloging standard that succeeds its predecessor, Anglo-American Cataloging Rules (2nd ed., rev.) (AACR2)
- Published in June 2010
- Designed for the digital environment
- Based on the test by Library of Congress, the National Agricultural Library, the National Library of Medicine and 26 test libraries, full implementation of RDA not take place until 2013

Day One of Implementation of RDA

- LC: full implementation of RDA March 31, 2013
- The U.S. National Agricultural Library and the National Library of Medicine, as well as the British Library, Library & Archives Canada, and National Library of Australia: the first quarter of 2013
- GPO: Spring 2013

Why Use RDA

- To serve our users with a better resource discovery experience
- To improve how we catalog by providing richer metadata that can be shared outside the library community as linked data on the web
- To better describe resources of all types and formats: print, online, microform, non-text, finite or integrating resources, etc.

Foundations of RDA

Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records (FRBR)

Functional Requirements for Authority Data (FRAD)

Statement of International Cataloguing Principles

Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records (FRBR)

User Tasks:

- Find
- Identify
- Select
- Obtain

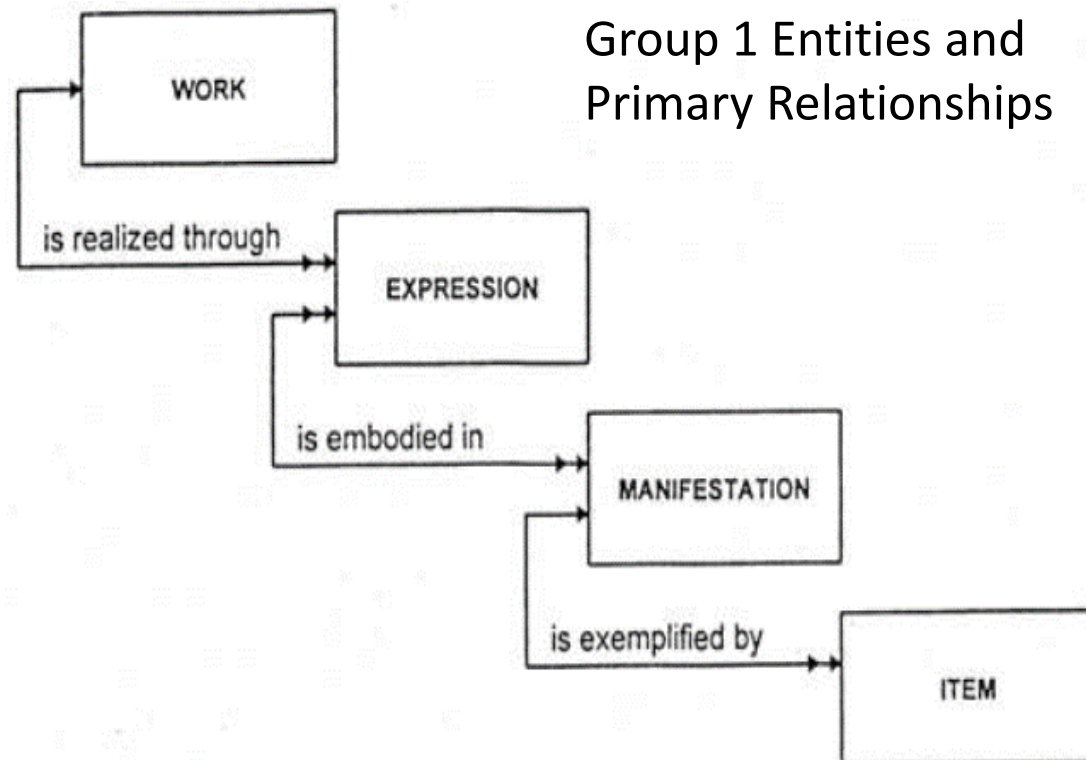

FRBR: a conceptual entity-relationship model

- Entities (in 3 groups)
- Attributes
- Relationships (between groups of entities)

Group 1 Entities: the products of intellectual or artistic endeavor

- Work
- Expression
- Manifestation
- Item

Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records \(FRBR\)

Group 2 Entities: those responsible for the intellectual or artistic content

- Person
- Corporate Body
- Family

Group 3 Entities: the subjects of works

- Concept
- Object
- Event
- Place

Group 3 Entities and “Subject” Relationships

Statement of International Cataloguing Principles

- Principle of Convenience of the User
- Principle of Representation (“take what you see”)
- Principle of Common Usage

“Elevator Speech”

- RDA aims to provide catalog data that will help libraries define our presence on the Web
- With well-defined and structured data elements
- Clearly indicating relationships among works and the people responsible for them
- Clearer language for our patrons
- Easier for computers to manipulate

Carrier description

Preferred sources

Prominent RDA Features:

Sets of rules for specific types of materials have disappeared. Instead, instructions are provided to describe “attributes” (i.e., characteristics) of “entities” (e.g., works and creators).

Prominent RDA Features:

Core Elements and Core If Elements

- Certain elements in RDA are identified as core elements or core if elements (RDA 0.6)
 - Core: Title, Statement of Responsibility, Edition statement , Publication statement, etc.
 - Core if: Copyright date (if neither date of publication nor date of distribution identified)
- Agency can add others

Prominent RDA Features: Principle of Representation

RDA 1.7.1 provides guidelines for transcribed information: generally follow what is on source for punctuation, abbreviations, inaccuracies, symbols, initials, numbering:

For inaccuracies in titles proper of monographs:

- “[sic]” or “[i.e., ___]” not used
- Explain in MARC 246 field
- 245 14 The U.S. State Department's inadequate response to human rights concerns in Bolivia : $b the case of American Jacob Osreicher
- 246 1# $i Corrected title: $a U.S. State Department's inadequate response to human rights concerns in Bolivia : $b the case of American Jacob Ostreicher

Prominent RDA Features: Convenience of the User

Abbreviations are out:

- “pages” – not “p.”
- “Department” – Not “Dept.” when this word is presented in full in the resource

Prominent RDA Features: Convenience of the User

- Latin Phrases No Longer Used:
 - “and X others” [formerly “et al.” for “et alia”]
 - “place of publication not identified” [formerly “s.l.” for “sine loco”]
 - “publisher not identified” [“s.n.” for “sine nomine”]
- Prefer to give a probable place, e.g., [United States?]

Prominent RDA Features: What Makes Sense to the User

For single statement naming more than one person, family, or corporate body, AACR2 “rule of 3” no longer applied:

- Transcribe as found
- Option: transcribe first name and give summary phrase in brackets

e.g.:

245 $a ... / $c by J. Douglas [and six others]

Prominent RDA Features

General Material Designation (GMD) ($h in MARC 245) replaced by three new elements: Content, Media, and Carrier

RDA Attribute for Expression

Content – a categorization reflecting the fundamental form of communication in which the content is expressed and the human sense through which it is intended to be perceived, e.g., text, spoken word, two-dimensional moving image, cartographic tactile image.

New field: MARC 336 – Content

RDA Attribute for Manifestation

Media – a general type of intermediation device required to view, play, run, etc., the content of a resource, e.g., audio, computer, microform, microscopic, projected, video.

Note: If no device is needed to perceive content, then add the data value “unmediated.”

New field: MARC 337 – Media

RDA Attribute for Manifestation

Carrier - a categorization reflecting the format of the storage medium or the housing of a carrier in combination with the type of intermediation device required to view, play, run, etc., the content, e.g., volume, videodisc, audio disc, microfilm reel, online resource.

New field: MARC 338 – Carrier

Content/Media/Carrier

for a textual monograph

For an electronic resource that is a textual monograph (i.e., a typical, online government report):

- Content - text
- Media - computer
- Carrier - online resource

Content/Media/Carrier

for a tangible video

For a videorecording on DVD that features a U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service field study of seabirds:

- Content - two-dimensional moving image
- Content- sounds
- Media - video
- Carrier - videodisc

Content/Media/Carrier

for a streaming video with transcript

For a streaming video online that features interviews of Secretaries of State, accompanied by a transcript:

- Content - two-dimensional moving image
- Content - spoken word
- Content - text
- Media - computer
- Carrier – online resource

GPO's Policies/Practices for RDA

Transcription vs. Omission of Statements of Responsibility

RDA 2.4.1.5, Optional Omission:

If a single statement of responsibility names more than three persons, families, or corporate bodies performing the same function, or with the same degree of responsibility, omit all but the first of each group of such persons, ...

GPO's Policies/Practices for RDA

General Guideline for Name Authority Records

Include optional fields in a name authority record whenever the information is readily available in the work being cataloged. No significant research needs to be done to find values for the optional fields in a name authority record.

GPO's Policies/Practices for RDA

Guidelines for Name Authority Records, cont'd.

Recording Hierarchically Superior (aka Parent) Bodies

Record a hierarchically superior body in a 410 field, 510 field, or in both. An NAR with a cross reference through a parent body can also carry a related link to that same body, e.g.,

- 1101 United States. $b General Services Administration. $b Safety, Environment, and Fire Protection Branch
- 4101 United States. $b General Services Administration. $b National Capital Region. $b Safety, Environment, and Fire Protection Branch
- 5101 $i Hierarchical superior: $a United States. $b General Services Administration. $b National Capitol Region $w r

Prefer to include the 510 field, whether or not the 410 field is included. Do not utilize the 373 field for a parent body.

GPO's Policies/Practices for RDA

Guidelines for Name Authority Records, cont'd.

MARC 373 – Associated Group

Prefer this field for groups having an uncertain or ambiguous relationship.
Use the 4XX or 5XX field for hierarchically superior (parent) bodies.
