Valerie Furino -> All Participants: I'm so glad you're doing this session - obviously we're in the same boat. :)

Kelly Seifert -> All Participants: and quite a boat it is! :)

Kelly Seifert -> All Participants: Tip: In order to hear the presentation, you will need to connect your audio by either dialing in on the phone or by connecting through your computer speakers. To connect, click "Audio" at the top and then "Audio conference." The pop up box will give you the two options to connect. Follow the instructions in the box.

Patricia Engel-Bunch -> All Participants: audio isn't working...

Cori Holder -> All Participants: One second. Let me assist Patricia.

Patricia Engel-Bunch -> All Participants: ok

Miranda Perry -> All Participants: Will this presentaion be made available?

Cori Holder -> All Participants: Yes. Every participant will receive an email with the recording and slides.

Miranda Perry -> All Participants: Thank you!

Patricia Engel-Bunch -> All Participants: This speaker is so smart!

Dawn Wilbert -> All Participants: I am a public youth librarian. Will I be able to share the recording with our patrons or would you prefer they take the course through you?

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: Hearing a bad echo

Cori Holder -> All Participants: That was odd. I am not seeing anyone unmuted. I will keep an eye/ear out.

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: How do you get an older child to buy in to doing "extra" work. My kid knows what's school-assigned and gets miffed when I add something extra

Candice Floyd -> All Participants: @Amy...can you try doing it with your child

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: What do you mean, @Candice? I'm trying to supplement her learning while I work

Candice Floyd -> All Participants: It may require taking lunch break with her and doing an experiment or supplemental together. It is a great way to bond and learn.

Candice Floyd -> All Participants: Or how about virtual "school-pooling" with another parent? You know how it is: they listen to everyone but you, even if you say that exact same thing.

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: My question is more: how do I convince her to go the extra mile? Her teacher gives 'must-do' work and 'optional' assignments. She never chooses to do the Optional ones even when they are activities/learning opportunities that she needs. When I require her to do them she gets very angry at having to do extra work. I am asking how do I get her to 'buy-in' to doing something extra.

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: These are great resources, but how do I convince her to try these suggestions?

Valerie Furino -> All Participants: I bribe my son with time credits - if he does an hour extra of work, he can earn 15 extra minutes for Fortnite.

Kelly Seifert -> All Participants: Amy, it's definitely a challenge! i have tried with some success both reward systems and penalties. I'll explain a little more when we do Q~38&A Candice Floyd -> All Participants: What's she into?

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: @Candice, I like the pooling idea but not sure how to do that... they're working on a directory for virtual learning students to connect but it's not up and running yet

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: Thanks, @Kelly

Candice Floyd -> All Participants: Time credits are good currency!

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: Playing an annoying cat-video game on her tablet, @Candice. LOL - no learning benefit at all and drives me nuts! ROFL

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: THanks @ Valerie

Candice Floyd -> All Participants: Does she have friends whose parents you've connected with? I would start with the like attracts like route.

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: We're pretty new to the school district so she still hasn't made a lot of friends here, unfortunately. We don't have close relationships with any of the parents

Candice Floyd -> All Participants: @Amy at least it's not "Just Shapes and Beats," which is exactly what it sounds like: technomusic and bright fuschia shapes

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: @Candice - ROFL. Good point! LOL

j hart -> All Participants: the national archives and the national park service are also good resources.

Kris Abery -> All Participants: Great resources. Thanks

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: Great resources! Greatly appreciated!

Dawn Wilbert -> All Participants: Thank you!!

Valerie Furino -> All Participants: These are really great resources - thank you! Nice to see the kids, Kelly - and nice to hear your voice again, Joe P!

Daria Greensfelder -> All Participants: Very concise webinar.

Sheila Dorsey -> All Participants: Wonderful tips and great Federal resources. Will share this webinar with homeschooling friend. Thanks very much!

Catalina Chiquillo -> All Participants: Could you recommend apps for Preschoolers and elementary kids?

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: Thanks, Kelly! Those are great incentive ideas! Really appreciate!

Natasha Finnegan -> All Participants: I have to lead but great resources and ideas, thank you!!

Natasha Finnegan -> All Participants: *leave

Lisa Caro -> All Participants: Sometimes following their interests for additional assignments. Ask what they would like to learn about.

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: Thanks, Jane. I've done that too. I think the combination of tactics will be useful! :)

Amelia Thomas -> All Participants: Are all of these resources available for the general public as well?

Judy Allen -> All Participants: thanks for the great list of resources

Cori Holder -> All Participants: Satisfaction Survey:

Catalina Chiquillo -> All Participants: App recommendations please

Holly Rivet -> All Participants: starfall.com

Amelia Thomas -> All Participants: Great! Can't wait to recommend these resources!

Holly Rivet -> All Participants: Reading Rainbow, Ranger Rick

Catalina Chiquillo -> All Participants: Thank you!

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: prodigygame.com for math - my daughter really enjoys it

Deborah Kitchin -> All Participants: National Wildlife Refuges often have bird checklists and other wildlife checklists that are great for field trips.

Cori Holder -> All Participants: Jane~38#x2019;s 6 part Science Soup webinar series:
<https://tinyurl.com/y9ns9fko>

Cori Holder -> All Participants: See our new FDLP Academy Training Repository, for webinars from the last two years, including many of Jane~38#x2019;s past webinars, at <https://www.fdlp.gov/fdlp-academy/fdlp-academy-training-repository>

Cori Holder -> All Participants: Older recordings may be found in FDLP Academy: Webinars and Webcasts at <http://login.icohere.com/public/topics.cfm?cseq=1172>

Kelly Seifert -> All Participants: We will include this chat log in the archive so you can refer to the app recommendations

Kelly Seifert -> All Participants: typetastic

Candice Floyd -> All Participants: hourofcode.com for prgramming,

Candice Floyd -> All Participants: Duolingo for languages

Amy Forsch -> All Participants: Thanks, @Kelly! I was hoping to be able to see the suggestions!

Candice Floyd -> All Participants: Epic Reading app

Candice Floyd -> All Participants: Thanks to you all!
