

Keynote Address – Chat Log:

from Kelly Seifert to everyone:
Our Keynote Address will begin at 1:10 (EDT).

from Craig Christianson to everyone:
hi Susanne! things are well, bracing ourselves for winter, but enjoying the little fall we get! hope all is well with you!

from Ashley Dahlen to everyone:
Allison - can you click on Audio & Video > Audio Settings > and see what speaker/microphone is connected in the drop down boxes?

from Becki White to everyone:
Just got Bingo! :)

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone: Does GPO have Mastodon?

from Aimee Quinn to everyone: Nice, Becky White!

from Arlene Fialkoff to everyone:
How do you mark your Bingo card?

from Jenny Groome to everyone: Grateful for longer break - gave me enough time to get stuck in elevator AND get rescued from elevator!

from Jenny Groome to everyone:
I just use a highlighter in a bright color and mark the square

from Arlene Fialkoff to everyone:
Oh, you have to print it out!

from Jenny Groome to everyone:
Oh - sorry - yes. And we all have the same board.

from Olivia Hedlund to everyone:
I took a screen snip of mine and am using the editing tool to mark them off as I get them!

from Kelly Seifert to everyone:
For bingo: Just keep your bingo card nearby, check off each action as you complete them, and post your completed BINGO on social media. Remember to include the hashtag: FDL Conference, and tag: AT US GPO. Five attendees, selected at random, who post their cards, will be awarded an FDLP promotional prize.

from Marna Morland to everyone:
So glad you were rescued, Jenny!

from Olivia Hedlund to everyone:
Does a singular bingo count or are we looking for blackouts?

from Kelly Seifert to everyone:
singular bingo works!

from Jenny Groome to everyone:
Me too Marna! It happens so often - but I broke my foot so I have to use elevator

from Jenny Groome to everyone:
Can we substitute other social media for Twitter?

from Kelly Seifert to everyone:
sure thing - we will review Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram

from Christopher Whitfield to everyone:
What if our library doesnt have social media??

from Kelly Seifert to everyone:
If no social media, you can email me your winning bingo: kseifert@gpo.gov

from Andie Craley to everyone: I'm using those handy Eagle FDLP stickers to mark my bingo board :)

from Jenny Groome to everyone: Love it Andie!

from Andie Craley to everyone:
So glad you were able to get out of the elevator, Jenny! What a Monday!

from Andie Craley to everyone: BINGO!

from Becki White to everyone:
Our library would not have internet service without E-Rate. Great program!!!

from Becki White to everyone:
Quite a few ACP participants in our area, too. We did one info session in August, will be doing another next month. Both sessions had full registration.

from Christopher Whitfield to everyone:
Thanks

from Daniel Cornwall to everyone: Wifi hotspot lending works best in areas with good cell service - this can be a problem in rural areas. But good on FCC for trying.

from Aimee Quinn to everyone:

+1, Daniel. It is challenging all over. I know we tried it when I was at CWU and we've been discussing the best way to do it here in Yuma.

from Becki White to everyone:

We can't keep the hotspots in stock; just ordered more to lend out.

from Deisy Vaske to everyone:

Does somebody have a link to the ACP for assistance on purchasing computes? Maybe I missundersootd Allison from Deisy Vaske to everyone:

Goodness I cant type correction computers

from Deisy Vaske to everyone:

Thanks!!

from Gwen Sinclair to everyone:

One of our conference sessions will be about (re)building trust with the government. To what extent do you believe that lack of trust in government hampers utilization of FCC programs to increase internet access?

from Jocelyn Boice to everyone:

Thanks for the story about Colorado State University's Morgan Library at the beginning of the presentation! It's always great to hear that the library's services are useful and appreciated. (I'm the current depository coordinator for the library.)

from Sarah Erekson to everyone:

I love that quote!

from Becki White to everyone:

@Gwen - as far as the ACP goes, we can get people signed up but we can't guarantee funding beyond next summer, last I heard. That erodes trust right there.

from Leslie Cunningham to everyone:

great quote-- thanks for your keynote from Stephen Kharfen to everyone:

Thank you very much for the great presentation.

from Kelly Smith to everyone: Impressive efforts by the FCC - much appreciated!

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone:
Has the LSCM Update Handout already been published?

from Ashley Dahlen to everyone:
LSCM Handout: <https://www.fdlp.gov/file-repository-item/library-services-and-content-management-update-handout>

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone:
Found it! Never mind!

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone:
Well, always a second too late.

from Ashley Dahlen to everyone: LOL!

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone:
This might be my favorite GPO handout. The links really make it. Please keep these coming in the future, and if they were in the past, shame on me for missing them!

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone:
Also, bingo & bingo.

from Jenny Groome to everyone:
Charlie - I love the Let's Dress Ben Franklin Like an Astronaut. I closed the tab, so I don't have the link

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone:
Is that a handout, @Jenny?

from Allie Lovette to everyone:
I do have to say I get the bejeezus scared out of me every time people come back from break as soon as I hear a voice! You would think I would know better by know.

from Allie Lovette to everyone:
*now

from Jennifer Morgan to everyone:

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone:
I did terribly preparing for this conference, despite reading the Tips for Conference Success!

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone:
@Jennifer, not just you!

from Scott Matheson to everyone:
Not just you Jennifer!

from Jennifer Morgan to everyone:
whew LOL

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone: Astronaut Ben is indeed the best. We should all make and contribute these. Really turn Ben into a paper doll.

from Susanne Caro to everyone:
I check my mute button all the time too.

from Becki White to everyone: I have no microphone or camera; I'm sitting at the reference desk of my public library because I'm almost never "off desk". Such is the life in a small library!

from Becki White to everyone:
@Charlie - I was thinking what else we could dress him in.

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone:
Maybe all the recognizable federal jobs? Park Ranger. Librarian.

from Scott Matheson to everyone:
I've seen holiday-themed Ben outfits. But I wonder about a Park or Forest Ranger Ben? The Navy's birthday was last week - "Admiral" Ben?

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone:
My Ben carries a pride flag at all times. I need a tiny Secretary Haaland to go with.

from Kathy Bayer to everyone:
I see all the love for Ben Franklin in various outfits. If you haven't seen it yet, see Michelle Graff's poster entitled "Dressing Up Your Ben Franklin" in the Poster Gallery: <https://www.fdlp.gov/2023-poster-presentation> from Ella Shurr to everyone:

I made a Park Ranger Ben for my National Parks display. ;-)
