NASA Speakers Bureau Request

ANNOUNCEMENT: NASA is taking steps to improve our process for requesting speakers in order to better serve the numerous requests received. As a result, we are only accepting requests through December 31, 2023.

We will reopen the request process as soon as the improvements are completed. Please check back for updates.

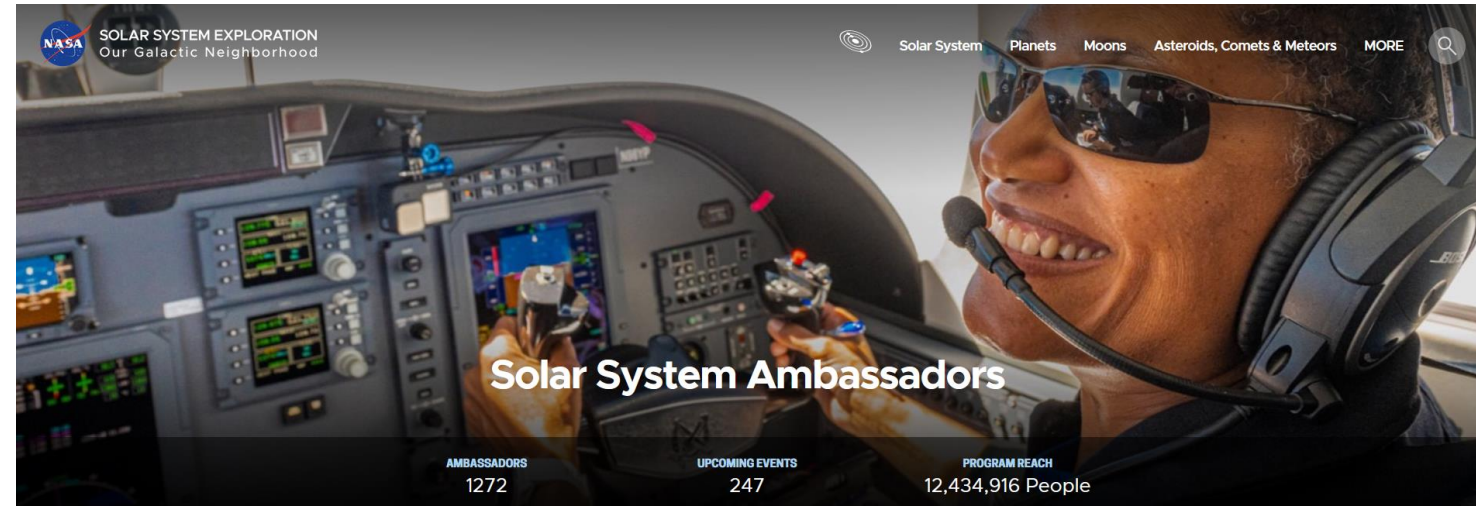

If you have any questions, please contact HQ-Speakers-Bureau@mail.nasa.gov.

We apologize for any inconvenience and thank you for your patience

Welcome to NASA Engages

The NASA Engages program is composed of NASA Experts who share NASA missions and content at educational, professional, civic, and other public venues. Audiences include preschool to college, libraries and museums, scouts, professional and technical organizations, community groups and other non-profit organizations. Experts are made up of professionals from education, engineering, science, and other fields. NASA Engages is led by NASA's Next Gen STEM program in the Office of STEM Engagement.

We invite you to join NASA Engages!

Create a profile in Gateway and register for a NASA Engages representative by clicking the button below and following the prompts. Please allow as much lead-time as possible prior to your event, preferably 7+ weeks for US requests and 12+ weeks for international requests. This consideration is necessary to give representatives adequate notice, ensure minimal disruption to work schedules, and provide adequate advance notice for preparation. Participation is on a volunteer basis. There is no guarantee requests will be fulfilled.

NASA Engages: Step 14 – Terms & Conditions and Basic Information

Terms and Conditions

1. Accessing and utilizing the NASA Engages platform is fully voluntary and users are not entitled to compensation, nor will they be considered employees, agents, independent contractors, or consultants of NASA or of the United States Government.
2. NASA Engages 'Experts' or representatives may not participate in any activity that is associated with fundraising, promotional activities or endorsements, either directly or indirectly.
3. Although it is understood that fees are often required to cover logistics expenses of an event (e.g., food at a dinner at which a NASA representative delivers a presentation) or the facility maintenance cost (e.g., entry fees at a non-profit museum), no fee may be charged or membership required specifically to view or attend the NASA employee's participation or speech, whether on the day of the event or in subsequent offered recordings. In addition, the employee's image, name, title, and position may not be used for promotional or marketing purposes and any use must comply with the Agency's Media Usage and Advertising Guidelines.
4. NASA Engages representatives may not participate in any activity in which a group/person has been, or will be excluded on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, gender identity, sexual orientation, or disability.
5. NASA Engages representatives are not allowed to accept honoraria, stipends or fees for speaking.
6. Due to budgetary limitations, NASA may not be able to fund the travel for events requiring a representative to travel 50 miles or more. NASA does have authority to accept payment from other organizations for travel expenses to meetings for engagements.
7. I understand that a representative may not be available for my event or request.
8. By uploading material to the NASA Engages platform, users, (i) voluntarily and unconditionally grant the U.S. government a royalty-free, worldwide, perpetual, non-exclusive license to reproduce, display and distribute such material, in whole or in part, in any media now existing or subsequently developed, for any educational, informational, publicity, exhibition, archival, scholarly and all other governmental purposes, and to have or permit others to do so on the government's behalf. NASA will use reasonable efforts to mark any photograph reproduced by NASA with a photographer credit as feasible and in a place and manner deemed appropriate by NASA in its discretion, (ii) acknowledge that NASA is not required to seek any additional approval in connection with the uses described herein, (iii) acknowledge and agree NASA is under no obligation to use material submitted to the NASA Engages platform; and (iv) unconditionally release NASA and its representatives from any and all claims and demands arising out of the activities contemplated under these terms and conditions, and (v) acknowledge that the above grant constitutes an unconditional gift or donation to NASA in accordance with Section 20113(d) of the National Aeronautics and Space Act (51 U.S.C. 20113(d)).
9. User posts may be removed if they contain:
 - a. Material that is off-topic for this forum;
 - b. Threatening, slanderous, or obscene language;
 - c. Personal attacks;
 - d. Discriminatory language based on race, national origin, age, gender, sexual orientation, religion, or disability;
 - e. Sexually explicit material or other material that would violate the law;

NASA Engages: Terms and Conditions

1. Accessing and utilizing the NASA Engages platform is fully voluntary and users are not entitled to compensation, nor will they be considered employees, agents, independent contractors, or consultants of NASA or of the United States Government.
2. NASA Engages 'Experts' or representatives may not participate in any activity that is associated with fundraising, promotional activities or endorsements, either directly or indirectly.
3. Although it is understood that fees are often required to cover logistics expenses of an event (e.g., food at a dinner at which a NASA representative delivers a presentation) or the facility maintenance cost (e.g., entry fees at a non-profit museum), no fee may be charged or membership required specifically to view or attend the NASA employee's participation or speech, whether on the day of the event or in subsequent offered recordings. In addition, the employee's image, name, title, and position may not be used for promotional or marketing purposes and any use must comply with the Agency's Media Usage and Advertising Guidelines.
4. NASA Engages representatives may not participate in any activity in which a group/person has been, or will be excluded on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, gender identity, sexual orientation, or disability.
5. NASA Engages representatives are not allowed to accept honoraria, stipends or fees for speaking.
6. Due to budgetary limitations, NASA may not be able to fund the travel for events requiring a representative to travel 50 miles or more. NASA does have authority to accept payment from other organizations for travel expenses to meetings for engagements.
7. I understand that a representative may not be available for my event or request.
8. By uploading material to the NASA Engages platform, users, (i) voluntarily and unconditionally grant the U.S. government a royalty-free, worldwide, perpetual, non-exclusive license to reproduce, display and distribute such material, in whole or in part, in any media now existing or subsequently developed, for any educational, informational, publicity, exhibition, archival, scholarly and all other governmental purposes, and to have or permit others to do so on the government's behalf. NASA will use reasonable efforts to mark any photograph reproduced by NASA with a photographer credit as feasible and in a place and manner deemed appropriate by NASA in its discretion, (ii) acknowledge that NASA is not required to seek any additional approval in connection with the uses described herein, (iii) acknowledge and agree NASA is under no obligation to use material submitted to the NASA Engages platform; and (iv) unconditionally release NASA and its representatives from any and all claims and demands arising out of the activities contemplated under these terms and conditions, and (v) acknowledge that the above grant constitutes an unconditional gift or donation to NASA in accordance with Section 20113(d) of the National Aeronautics and Space Act (51 U.S.C. 20113(d)).

9. User posts may be removed if they contain:

- Material that is off-topic for this forum;
- Threatening, slanderous, or obscene language;
- Personal attacks;
- Discriminatory language based on race, national origin, age, gender, sexual orientation, religion, or disability;
- Sexually explicit material or other material that would violate the law;
- Proprietary or business sensitive information that you do not have the right to make public;
- Content for which you do not hold the copyright or other intellectual property rights; or
- Share Personally Identifiable Information (e.g. social security numbers, home addresses, home phone numbers). Repeated violations may be subject to temporary or permanent suspension of access to this forum.

10. NASA employees cannot provide any services to the hosts or engage in judging or selections for which there are cash, awards, or prizes that would represent significant financial gain for the winners/selectees.

11. Uploads and Images:

- The image, photograph, video or music was produced entirely by you (i.e. your original work), and contains no material from another copyrighted work;
- The contents of the image or video do not infringe the copyright or any other right of any third party;
- The material does not feature any inappropriate content, including mature subject matter or themes, product advertisements, or other material not suitable to minors as more particularly set forth herein;
- In the event any individual is featured in any submitted images, video or other material, by submitting such material you represent and warrant that such individual has granted permission for NASA to use such individual's name and likeness in connection with NASA's use of the material hereunder, and you agree to provide proof of such permission upon demand.

12. NASA may remove, at its discretion, any material members submit to, create or provide in NASA Engages that does not meet NASA content standards or values.

13. The views expressed by other users on NASA Engages do not necessarily represent NASA views or values. Content shared and posted by other members should not be considered as endorsed by NASA

14. I have read and accept NASA's Engages Terms and Conditions.

15. By posting material and submitting requests to this platform, you agree to indemnify NASA for any claims arising from a breach of the above representations and warranties.
