from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone: 1:12 PM
The best thing about DLC is getting to regularly converse with librarians in different library types. SO valuable to collaborate across disciplines.

from Sarah Pirila to everyone: 1:14 PM I'm glad you guys are reaching out and doing your best to show how important this is!

from Charlie she-her Amiot to everyone: 1:14 PM
I love this. Outreach is so important. You never know what you don't know. Information is empowering.

from K Dominique Hallett to everyone: 1:14 PM
wow. This is exciting!

from Elisabeth Garner to everyone: 1:15 PM
I see that the Rep from NC's 3rd district is on the committee...that's my district in SE North Carolina...interesting!

o Draft Definition of Retention Commitment A retention commitment is a formal signed agreement between the U.S. Government Publishing Office and a library or a Federal agency in which the library or Federal agency guarantees to hold and preserve specified National Collection of U.S. Government Public Information titles for a length of time that is indicated in the agreement.

from Cassandra Wenzel to everyone: 1:21 PM
You mentioned a title that was reallocated, which was it?

from Jenny McBurney to everyone: 1:21 PM
Not a question, but to share: As you may have seen on Govdoc-L, everyone is welcome to join the new Discord server, The U.S. Government Information Community! This is a great way to build community and stay connected. You can join via this link: <https://discord.gg/7nDRNCjc> or with the invite code: 7nDRNCjc from Cynthia Etkin to everyone: 1:21 PM Sorry - that definition is no longer draft, it was approved.

from Gwen Sinclair to everyone: 1:21 PM Yes House Reports

from Shawn King to everyone: 1:21 PM
I am wondering about the print distribution dashboard and wonder if we could add the ability to search for selectors by NCSA and/or state?

from Marcie Blaylock to everyone: 1:21 PM Yes, that's correct!

from Myrrh Morningstar to everyone: 1:21 PM Yes, it was the House Reports

from Cassandra Wenzel to everyone: 1:21 PM
Thank you!

from Shari Laster to everyone: 1:22 PM
Good to know about developments with the NCSAs! I am curious if GPO is considering participating in the new Shared Print Partnership? <https://sharedprint.org/>

from Cassandra Wenzel to everyone: 1:22 PM
It did, thank you!

from Shari Laster to everyone: 1:24 PM
Very cool!! Thank you Scott and Suzanne (and Abby)!!

from Lara Adair to everyone: 1:26 PM it closed already

from Heather Leadingham to everyone: 1:27 PM
It closed before I saw it

from James Jacobs to everyone: 1:28 PM wish there was a "not yet" answer for discovergov :-) from Becki White to everyone: 1:28 PM Different answers if "not yet" were an option!

from Patricia A. Duplantis to everyone: 1:28 PM DiscoverGov: <https://discover.gpo.gov/>

from Amanda Ros to everyone: 1:28 PM you can also collapse the chat and participants from Celina McDonald to everyone: 1:29 PM

I wish we could sort results by sudoc on DiscoverGov.

from Patricia A. Duplantis to everyone: 1:29 PM
Thank you for the feedback, Celina.

from Cassandra Wenzel to everyone: 1:29 PM
I agree with Celina. That's one of the major drawbacks in my experience.

from James Jacobs to everyone: 1:30 PM
yay MoCat!!

from Susanne Caro to everyone: 1:31 PM Yaay

from Susanne Caro to everyone: 1:31 PM MoCat!

from John Olson to everyone: 1:31 PM
Will it include the MoCat number for each entry?

from Susan Ashby to everyone: 1:31 PM Nice!

from Amanda Lousley to everyone: 1:32 PM
Are there going to be talks about which AI sites or programs have been FEDRAMP approved?

from Rebecca Hyde to everyone: 1:32 PM
This is so exciting!

from Patricia A. Duplantis to everyone: 1:32 PM DiscoverGov allows to browse search by SuDoc. Within the CGP search scopes you can limit by SuDoc Stem in the results facets. We have noted the suggestion about sorting via SuDoc for future consideration.

from Marie Concannon to everyone: 1:32 PM

I hope the historic MoCat will include the "black dot" data point which indicates whether the doc was included as part of the FDLP. It helps us to know whether we purchased a doc (or received as a gift) vs. receiving it through the FDLP program, thus making it subject to retention requirements

from James Jacobs to everyone: 1:33 PM
yes to the black dots!

from Lisa Russell to everyone: 1:33 PM
The Historic MoCat will include depository distribution information when it was included in the print edition.

from Sinai Wood to everyone: 1:33 PM Agree

from Chris Brown to everyone: 1:33 PM +1 for black dots

from James Jacobs to everyone: 1:33 PM
Hi Fang!

from Kathy Hale to everyone: 1:34 PM
For MoCat, are you going from the most recent to the historic or vice versa?

from Lisa Russell to everyone: 1:35 PM Historic MoCat will cover 1895-June 1976. The full content before GPO began online cataloging.

from Lisa Russell to everyone: 1:36 PM
We expect to launch it all at once.

from Lisa Russell to everyone: 1:36 PM
*Assuming a successful proof of concept.

from Susanne Caro to everyone: 1:37 PM
FYI- Eric is going away today. If you want to download a document do it ASAP.

from Elisabeth Garner to everyone: 1:37 PM
I appreciate this flow chart!

from James Jacobs to everyone: 1:39 PM
There have recently been some agency IRs that have or have been threatened to be taken down (eg <https://rosap.ntl.bts.gov> and <https://repository.library.noaa.gov>). Is GPO reaching out to those agencies who have their own IRS/repositories and strategizing on preservation in those instances?

from Susanne Caro to everyone: 1:42 PM
How do you determine the frequency for capturing the websites?

from Dory Bower to everyone: 1:42 PM Generally frequency of crawling is every 6 months from Mary Russell to everyone: 1:45 PM

Will the slides, with live links, be distributed along with the recording?

from James Jacobs to everyone: 1:47 PM and don't forget the Report of the Depository Library Council's Working Group on Exploring the Durability of PURLs and Their Alternatives <https://fdlp.gov/file-repository-item/final-report-purl-working-group-transmittal-letter-and-recommendations-dlc>

from Marie Concannon to everyone: 1:47 PM

Yay, Indiana State Library!

from Abby McDermott to everyone: 1:48 PM

The Collaborations page on FDLP.gov provides information on partnerships with LSCM and GPO: <https://fdlp.gov/collaborations-with-gpo>

Yay Augusta!

from Thomas Lynch to everyone: 1:49 PM

Excellent example of team work and collegiality.

from Abby McDermott to everyone: 1:49 PM

There are many useful links under Resources and Documentation on the Preservation Stewards page on FDLP.gov: <https://fdlp.gov/collaborations-with-gpo/partnerships/preservation-stewards>

from Thomas Lynch to everyone: 1:49 PM

will the demise of IMLS have an impact on this work?

from Susanne Caro to everyone: 1:50 PM

Can we have some competition on who preserves the most?

from James Jacobs to everyone: 1:51 PM

no doubt! did folks notice that LC's Chronicling America historic newspaper collection is funded by NEH :-(

from James Jacobs to everyone: 1:51 PM

<https://chroniclingamerica.loc.gov/>

from Rachel Seissler to everyone: 1:52 PM

Preservation steward for the FCC Record...

from Susanne Caro to everyone: 1:53 PM

Suzanne is very nice and understanding when you are going through the preservation steward process. It is a fairly simple process.

from James Jacobs to everyone: 1:54 PM and patient too with those slacker libraries (like mine) who have said they wanted to be stewards but haven't gotten our act together yet :-)

from Elisabeth Garner to everyone: 1:54 PM

GovInfo and DiscoverGov are just such great resources...I appreciate how they act just like our academic databases but they're free! Showing them to students at my university has been a good thing.

from Joshua Olsen to everyone: 1:55 PM

+1 Elisabeth

from Patricia A. Duplantis to everyone: 1:56 PM

Thank you for the great feedback, Elisabeth.

from Marie Concannon to everyone: 1:56 PM

If anything happens to Chronicling America, I'm going to be extremely disappointed and that's putting it mildly.

from Elisabeth Garner to everyone: 1:56 PM

For the 7.5 minute series, are you looking for specific states? We no longer collect these in print but we do have what I believe to be full runs of 5 different states.

from John Olson to everyone: 1:56 PM

Thank you.

from Elisabeth Garner to everyone: 1:57 PM

Well, full runs of the specific towns in each state, etc.

from Daniel Cornwall to everyone: 1:57 PM

Marie - same here. Amazing resource and genealogical boon!

from Susanne Caro to everyone: 1:57 PM

If Chonicling goes away I will cry

from Marie Concannon to everyone: 1:57 PM

I use it for historic prices

from James Jacobs to everyone: 1:57 PM

thanks Fang!

from James Jacobs to everyone: 1:58 PM

If GPO would like all of the PDFs that End of Term Archive has harvested this time around, please let me know. All of the .gov PDFs are FT searchable from <https://web.archive.org> from Fang Gao to everyone: 1:59 PM Thanks, James!

from Christopher Bloodworth to everyone: 2:00 PM
