

Fall 2026 DLC: Conference Kickoff / Keynote Address: GovScape: Toward Multimodal Search & Discovery for Government PDFs Chat Log

Jenny Groome:

Will we need to go out and come back in for every session? Unlike WebEx, my Zoom makes me relaunch it each time.

James Jacobs:

Since a lot of this conference is about govinfo preservation, I encourage folks to check out “preservation of govt information a call to action” and add your signature to endorse the statement!

Sarah Dobransky:

Hey y'all! What happens when you're both the FDLP coordinator and the science manager? You work with the marketing team to produce this gem:

Adrienne Teague:

Jenny, mine does too. Sigh.

Jenny Groome:

Bingo!

Daniel D Cornwall Cornwall:

@Sarah - fabulous video!

Jenny Groome:

+1 Sarah

Ella Shurr:

@Sarah Hi, Sarah! 😊 Love the video!

Michelle Colquitt:

Sarah!! I love Stephan Johnson's videos--it must've been so much fun to get him to collaborate with y'all!

Christina Rines:

If anyone knows how to get to the Poster Gallery & Exhibitor Gallery please post it here. I am a newbie and can't find the link anywhere.

Andie Craley:

Got 1 Bingo so far!

Jenny Groome:

Abby Oldt:
other links for the conference (including bingo!) <https://www.fdlp.gov/news/final-schedule-agenda-important-reminders-2026-fdl-conference>

Jenny Groome:
I don't see handouts or slides on the conference page. Often they are there in advance for accessibility accommodations

Thomas Lynch:
I found these slides under the Resources tab in this Zoom

Kelly Seifert:
Click on Resources in this webinar room to get a PDF of the slides

Scott Matheson:
Slides are in the "Resources" tab in zoom - it may be under your "more..." button

DeAnn Isenhower:
Amazing story and a wonderful legacy, Dr. Lee.

Kelly Seifert:
Slides are also available in the Zoom event lobby and will soon be available from the upcoming FDL.gov conference archive

Jenny Groome:
Thanks! They used to be on the FDLP page.

James Jacobs:
Woot! End of Term Archive!! <https://eotarchive.org>

Ben Petersen:
Question about the newspaper navigator. You mention it's no longer up. What factors went into the decision to pull it down?

Brian Hamilton:
Question regarding the cataloging of websites: How do you choose between cataloging them as serials or an integrating resource?

Jenny Groome:

Wish we had links in chat - so we can see who has the most tabs open at any given moment during conference.

Jenny Groome:
EOT!

Danielle Gensch:
New square for bingo!

Danielle Gensch:
10+ tabs open

Jenny Groome:
@Danielle - needs to start at 20! Not counting posters and gallery

Aimée Quinn:
+1 James.

Merrilee Proffitt:
Any fewer than 20 tabs is amateur level. :-)

Aimée Quinn:
Merrilee, fewer than 50, really!

Danielle Gensch:
I'm still an amateur, clearly

David Cox:
Okay so what about multiple browsers open each with more than 20 tabs open?

Charlie Amiot:
Tabs are for rookies. Vertical sidebars ftw.

Merrilee Proffitt:
@Danielle I aspire to your restraint!

Aimée Quinn:
At least 3 browsers

Jenny Groome:
Aimee - I'm at 49 because I'm still reading posters during breaks

Jenny Groome:
I use OneTab

Aimée Quinn:
Y'all really need to learn how to triage better 🤖

Aimée Quinn:
@Jenny, I love OneTab

Adrienne Teague:
Opening another tab to google vertical sidebars

Charlie Amiot:
Vertical <https://arc.net/>

Charlie Amiot:
It is Chromium based, but I don't care about my privacy and security there, bc it's all made up!

Lisa Russell:
That's my favorite pie chart too!

Mary Larson:
How are you dealing with issues of representation in archival settings, since who/what was thought deserving of documentation has clearly changed over time?

Jenny Groome:
Just to confirm - 2020 End of Term crawl and not others? I recognized that is a huge amount

Jenny Groome:
+1 Mary

Thomas Lynch:
Thought he said EOT started in 2008

Stephen Kharfen:
That was great. Thank you very much.

Brent Abercrombie:
Wonderful talk! Thank you

Jenny Groome: Yes - but page says 2020 <https://govscape.net/faq>
